NESTLED SECURELY IN A GREAT SWEEPING CRESCENT OF THE HISTORIC MISSISSIPPI RIVER, OLD NEW ORLEANS IS THE POSSESSOR OF A PROUD HERITAGE OF COLORFUL TRADITION AND GRACIOUS LIVING. HERS ARE THE CONTINENTAL CUSTOMS OF OLD-WORLD FRANCE, BLENDED BY THE MELLOWING PROCESSES OF TIME WITH SPANISH CABALLERO TRADITIONS AND ENGLISH CAVALIER INFLUENCES. NEW ORLEANS IS THE HOME OF THE CREOLE, A LAUGHING HAPPY PEOPLE, NEVER TOO BUSY TO PLAY. HER EATING PLACES ARE FAMOUS FOR GUMBO AND JAMBALAYA, SAVORY DISHES WHICH COMBINE FRENCH FLAVOR AND SPANISH FIRE. THE VIEUX CARRE IS A WORLD APART, ROMANTIC AND PICTURESQUE. THE NARROW STREETS, DISTINCTIVE ARCHITECTURE, EXQUISITE IRON GRILLWORK, AND COOL, DEEP-SHADOWED PATIOS CREATE AN AURA OF CHARM COMPLETELY UNIQUE.

A CITY OF CONTRASTS . . .

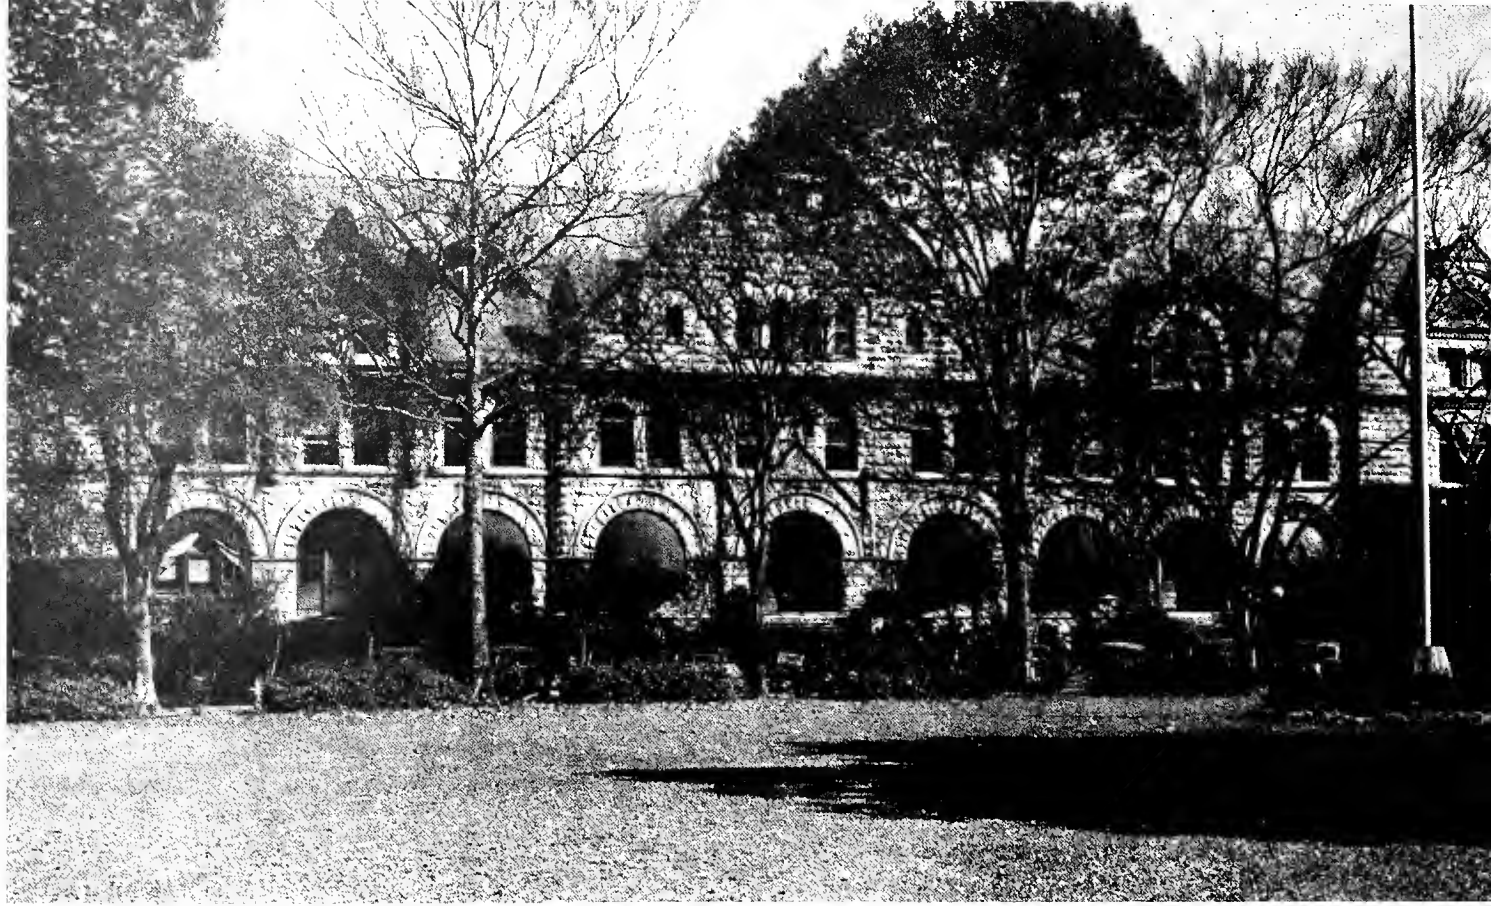

A NEW AGE AT TULANE...

THAT SAME GREAT SWEEP-

ING CRESCENT WHICH ENCIRCLES NEW ORLEANS LIKE A PROTECTING ARM IS ONE OF THE WORLD'S MOST TRAVELLED WATERWAYS. THE MISSISSIPPI IS THE PATHWAY TO THE WORLD FOR THE PRODUCTS OF THE VAST, FERTILE MIDDLE SECTION OF OUR CONTINENT, AND NEW ORLEANS IS THE FLOOD-GATE OF THIS STREAM OF COMMERCE. NEW ORLEANS IS A HEALTHY, GROWING CITY, ALIVE AND BUSTLING. DAY AND NIGHT SHIPS' WHISTLES ANNOUNCE ARRIVALS AND DEPARTURES, AND NIGHT AND DAY THE ROAR OF MIGHTY ENGINES HERALDS THE SKYLINERS AS THEY COME AND GO. THE TWIN SILVER STRIPS OF THE RAILROADS RADIATE FROM NEW ORLEANS LIKE SPOKES FROM A HUB, AND MODERN HIGHWAYS CROSS THE BROAD MISSISSIPPI ON SPANS WHOSE BASES REACH DOWN TO THE FOUNDATIONS OF THE EARTH.

Tulane University has grown hand in hand with New Orleans, but the attainment of progress has not meant the sacrifice of a gracious way of living. Appreciation of the humanities has been fostered at Tulane through the years when tremendous scientific advances have tended to overshadow all else.

Social Science Building

Changes brought about by reconversion following the end of the war are in evidence throughout the University. Veterans of battles fought on every sea and in every clime have returned to the campus, bringing with them a maturity and seriousness new to college life. Students from many countries make Tulane an integral part of New Orleans, the International City.

Veterans' Housing Project

Not to be forgotten are the young men from the high schools who have just entered Tulane, for they are destined to take an important part in the shaping of the brave new world for which their older brothers fought. They are as much a part of the University as the veterans.

Dixon Hall

Tulane Stadium

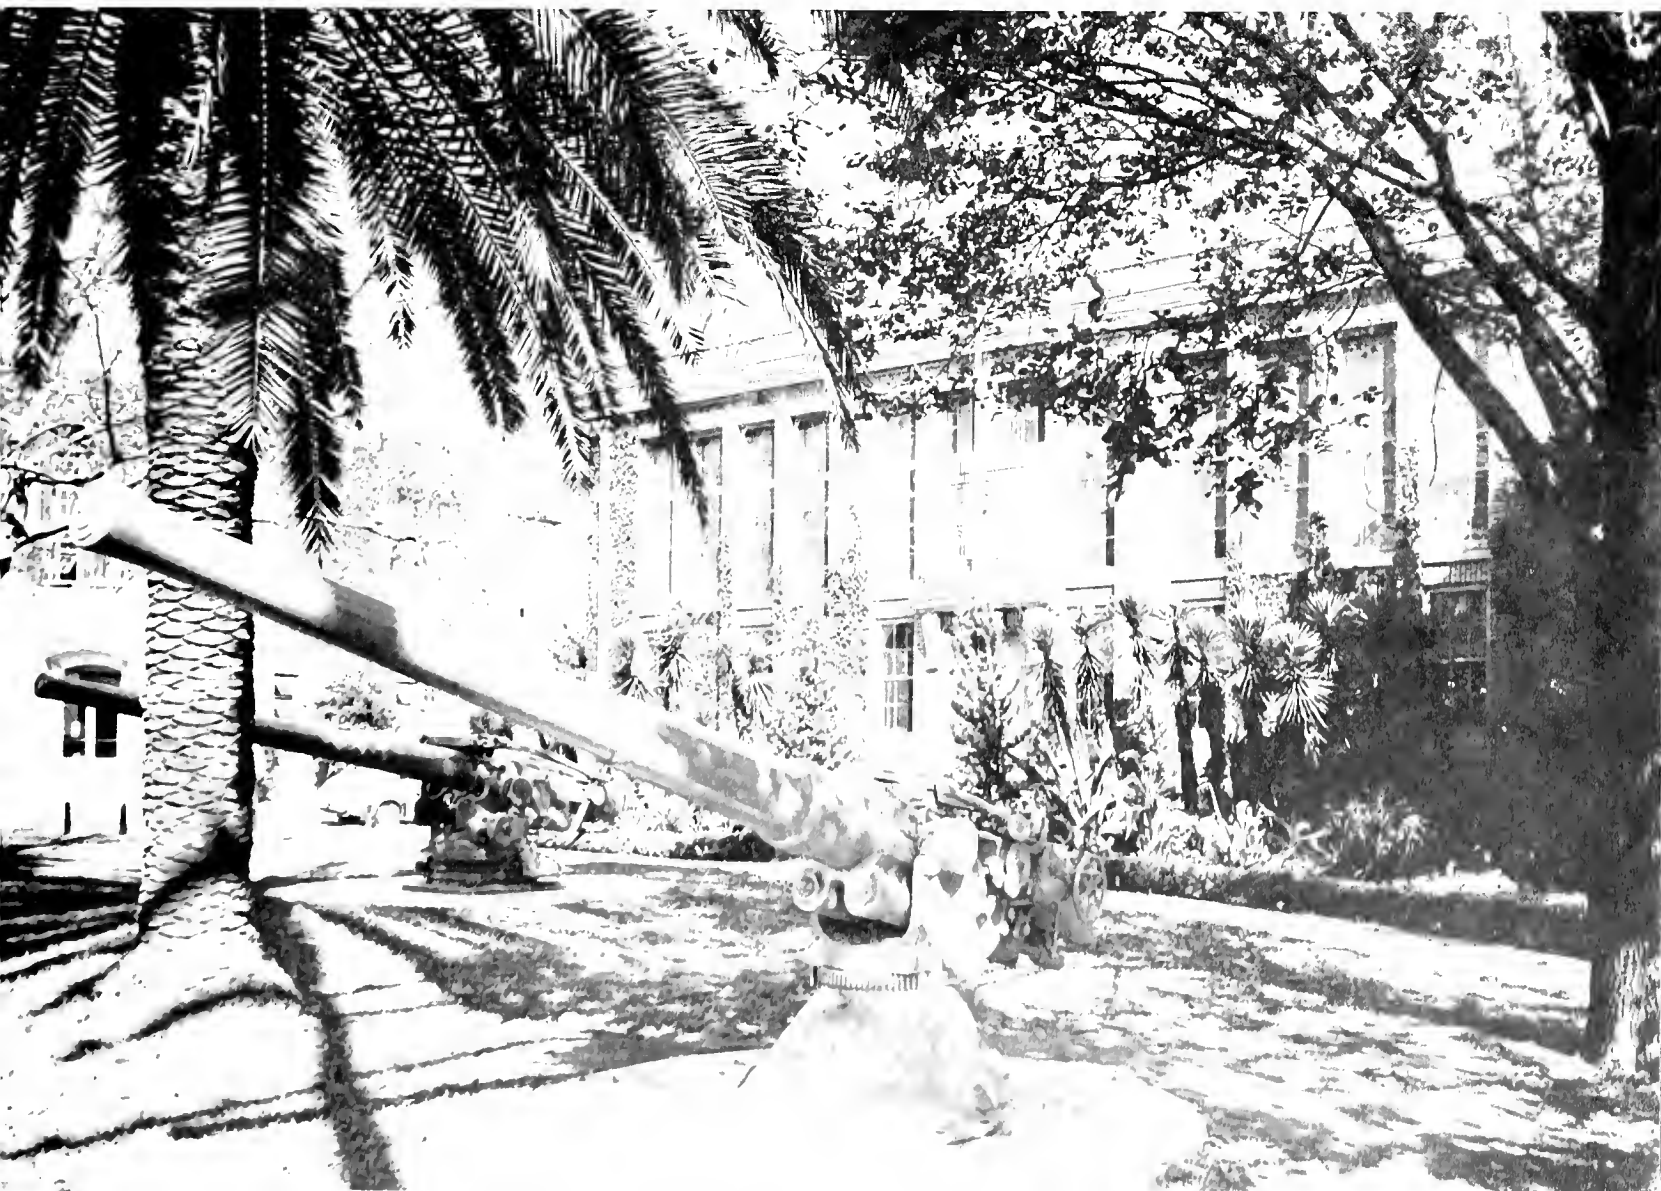

Gone now are the great numbers of uniforms seen in the past three years. The place of those uniformed men and women who were learning the techniques of war is taken now by men and women seeking a foundation on which to build their structure of knowledge for peace, seeking from older and more experienced men "help, to help themselves."

Student Center

Navy Building

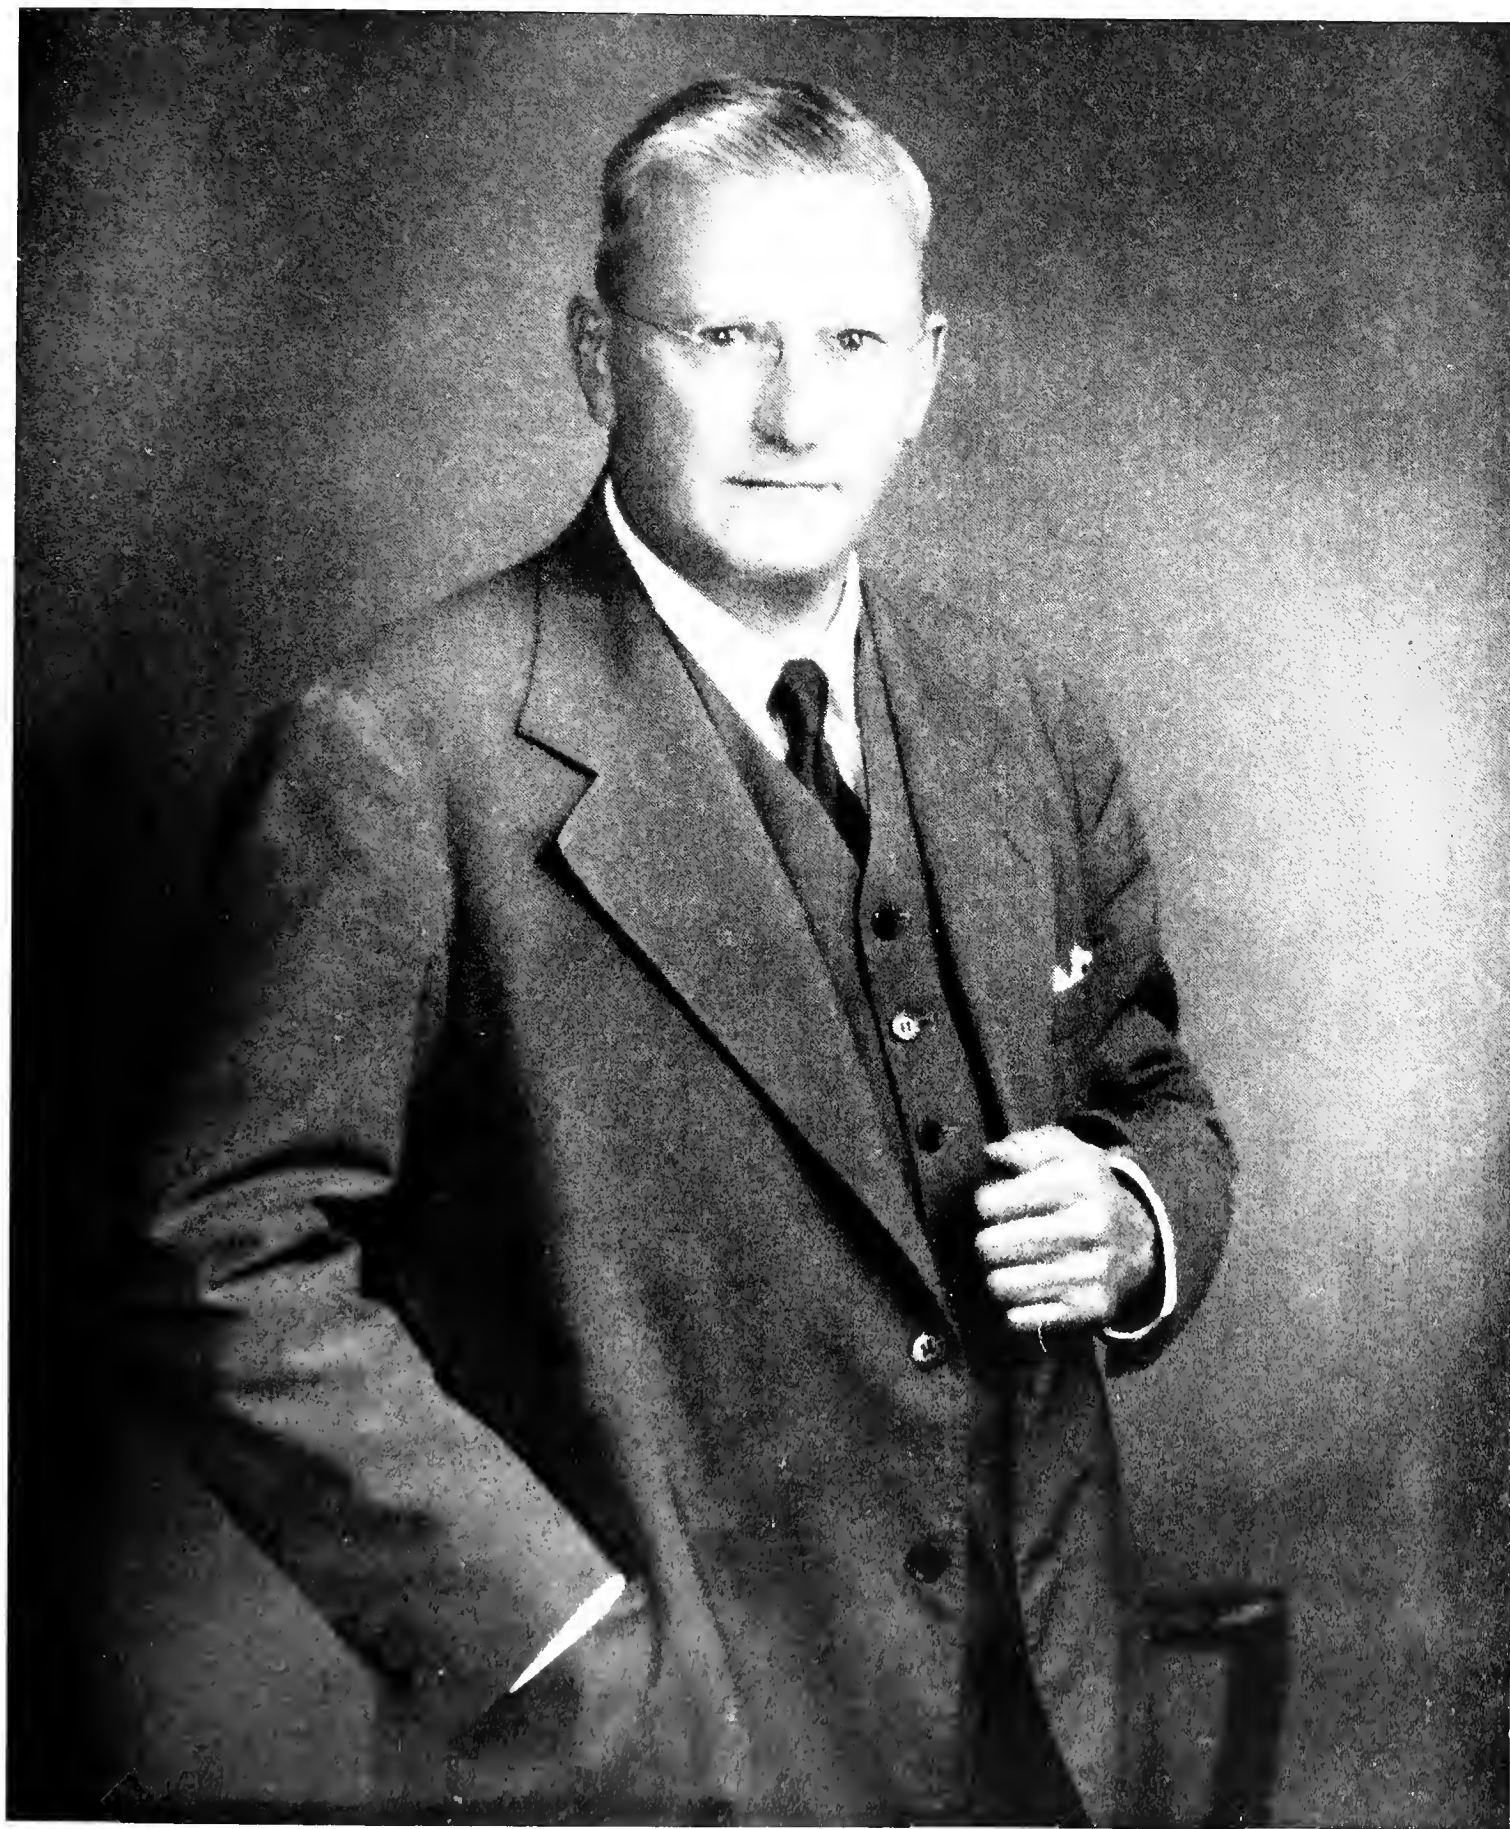

The past year will be remembered for the large influx of veteran students to the campus. Until the fall of 1946, Tulane was able to take care of qualified students who applied for admission, but from that time it became apparent that the University would not be able to do so. A policy giving preference to former students and those with superior high school records was worked out, and the expansion of the University's enrollment to the limit of its facilities was carefully controlled. During this session there have been more students in the University than at any time in its history.

With such a large enrollment, the greatest problem has not been that of housing, as difficult as that problem has been and as apparent as are the many means toward the partial solution of the housing problem undertaken by the University. Housing units, temporary building, reconversion and remodeling have changed the appearance of the campus. But the greatest problem has been that of increasing the endowment fund. A full realization that the fees paid by the students must be matched by substantial income from endowment funds in order to operate the University makes apparent the added difficulties of our hugely increased enrollment. The effort to improve the endowment funds has had the continuous attention of the Administrators of the University and its officers.

For the Class of 1947 I will have always a special regard. But for the war, many of you would have helped to make up the Classes of 1942, 1943, 1944, 1945, and 1946. You have been good students. You have worked with mature purpose and with an eagerness that is inspiring. Your Alma Mater hopes that, unlike the past, the future will hold for you a large portion of the best things in life.

ASSOCIATION

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

The Tulane Alumni Association is composed of all graduates and former students of the University. Its offices are located in the Student Center Building on the Tulane campus. The TULANIAN, publication of the Association, is sent to all members free of charge and contains news of the University and the alumni. At each commencement, members of the graduating class are welcomed into the Association by an alumni officer. Active Tulane Alumni Clubs have been organized throughout the country. In addition to the regular Homecoming celebration, class reunions are held each year. Annually, Tulane Alumni honor the memory of Paul Tulane on the occasion of his birthday, May 10th. One of the accomplishments of the year was the reorganization of the T. Club, composed of former athletes. A "Meet the Coaches" party was held in April to introduce to the alumni Tulane's new coaching staff.

New Orleans, the old and the new, was the inspiration for the theme of the 1947 JAMBALAYA. In this year's edition of the official year-book of Tulane University, we have tried to capture a portion of the charm and beauty of this historic city. Those students from New Orleans know well the gracious living and way of life that is prevalent here. We hope that we have shown to those students who have come to Tulane from other cities and other lands the qualities which have made New Orleans famous throughout the world for its hospitality gaiety and natural beauty.

The 1947 JAMBALAYA was officially dedicated to no specific person. Unofficially, it is dedicated to those members of the staff of this year who have devoted their time and efforts to bring you a pictorial record of this college year. To these people, and to many others who we have failed to mention, this book is respectfully dedicated.

THE HULLABALOO

Roland "Swat" Swardson, out of Navy blues, wielded the Hullabaloo whip this year. The student publication enjoyed an era of post-war boom as applications for staff work broke all records. Tuesday deadlines didn't find staff-members trampling fellow Student Center inhabitants in last-minute rushes. Due to hard-hitting Swardsonian efficiency, "Every man at his post" was the rule of the year.

Henchmen to The Boss were Associate Editors Wiley Wilkinson and Dennis Bryant. Bob Barnes, the Marshfield Kid, kept an eagle-eye out for mob efficiency. Molls Wilma "Billie" Knight and Carol Shockey held down the desk during wild bull sessions. Lorraine Free-

Roy Trahan and Mike Kirk leading the bulb-flashers' parade.

Copy, copy, copy, pursuit by publicity hounds, letters of criticism, lots of flies in the ointment, but every Friday morn the Hulla hit the campus without fail.

Altogether a very smooth year for budding journalists, who took time off one Saturday eve for a "Communists" party where everyone turned up in anti-social, revolutionary costume.

"Give it to me, Smiley," this year's password for entrance into the sanctum of Tulane's Fourth Estate, resulted from a three hour staff meeting at Loew's State one autumn eve.

Tulane newspaper world

Must be Lil' Abner

man handled the society angle, Mary Lou Mossy held sway over the Newcomb branch, while Phil Harsham took charge of the Grammar department.

Each Tuesday of the school year, with deadline approaching by winged chariot, Sports Editor Bob Watters battled the latest statistics on points scored, while Harry Heintzen and the feature staff stretched fillers into feature stories.

Newell Berry held down the editorial duties, while Phil Slipakoff tracked down newsbeats as Assistant Campus Editor. "Buck" Blitch tackled cartoon problems, and Bill Beaty stood off in a corner wrestling with unknown editorial problems. Vic Gold preached anarchy between weekly glitterings.

Tulane Photo Service took care of the Brownie duties,

OMICRON DELTA KAPPA

SID PATE
President

Omicron Delta Kappa is a national collegiate organization which selects for membership students who have excelled in more than one of the following fields of university activity: scholarship, athletics, social and religious affairs, publications, speech, music, and dramatic arts. Members are elected from the faculty and administration on the basis of having displayed unselfish leadership in the interest of the university. The two primary bases for election are character and leadership. ODK is the only national collegiate organization which recognizes excellence in extra-curricular pursuits; it is also the only national collegiate organization which embraces both student and faculty as active members.

The national organization was founded at Washington and Lee University in 1914. The Alpha Zeta Circle at Tulane was established in 1930.

Kappa Delta Phi was founded at Tulane in 1904 as an honorary fraternity for the promotion of Tulane spirit. Each year it selects from the junior and senior classes and graduate school, men who have been conspicuous for school spirit and for distinguished and unselfish loyalty and endeavors during their university careers. One faculty member is recognized for outstanding service.

Kappa Delta Phi has a two-fold purpose. It confers membership upon those singly effective and successful in promoting university spirit and advancing university enterprise, and it binds together these men into an organization dedicated to further endeavor in behalf of Tulane.

The society is composed of regular members consisting of medical men and women who as undergraduates have given promise of becoming leaders in their professions, of honorary members consisting of physicians who have attained distinction in any worthy line of human endeavor, and of persons, whether physicians or not, who have gained unusual recognition in fields related to medicine. The most prominent requisite for membership is high scholarship in a broad sense, along with evidence of strength of character, individuality, originality and moral character.

The aims of the society are: (1) the promotion of scholarship and research in medical schools, the encouragement of a high standard of character and conduct among medical students and graduates, and the recognition of high attainment in medical science of practice and related fields; and (2) the creation of a fund to aid deserving students in the School of Medicine of the Tulane University of Louisiana.

At the end of each year the most outstanding freshmen at Newcomb are selected on the basis of school spirit, leadership, and scholarship to be Assets. Initiation day is a highlight on Newcomb campus. At the chapel service the new members are called from the audience and donkeys' tails are tied on them by the Sophomore Assets. After a song has been composed in honor of the day, the initiates, led by the old members, parade around the campus, concluding the initiation with a luncheon in the recreation room of Dixon Hall.

The following year Assets take an active part in Freshman orientation. The president is on the orientation committee and the members act as Big Sisters to the Freshmen.

This national fraternity, founded in 1925 at Lafayette College in Pennsylvania, brings men of college age together in the fellowship of the scout oath and law. The purpose of this fellowship is the gathering of a group of men who are willing to serve both the campus and the community.

This year, as a service to the community, they sent out several of the former scouts to local troops to act as leaders in the absence of the regular scout masters. As a service to the campus they participated in the campus chest drive and the annual Easter sunrise service. The campus chest has supplemented their participation in the Easter and Christmas seals campaign.

STUDENT CENTER COUNCIL

The Student Center Council is one of the most active organizations on the campus, since it provides entertainment for the entire student body. Composed of electees from all colleges and classes for their interest in such activities, the group has made possible informal diversion from studies during hours before, between, and after classes. In addition to the weekly Student Stomps, orchestras were also secured to play at the Student Center for such occasions as the Sadie Hawkins' Day Dance and a Valentine's Party. With the cooperation of Mrs. Chipley, the Student Center Council has also sponsored bridge and chess tournaments. Members of the council act as hosts, help in the decoration of the center for different occasions, and make the Student Center a meeting place and a center of activity on the campus.

The Newcomb Athletic Council is the governing body of the Newcomb Athletic Association which is composed of any student who participates in its activities. On the council are representatives from each class, chairmen of the major sports, presidents of the individual athletic clubs, and the chairmen of the four leagues: Dixon, Howard, Gibson and Norman. These leagues were founded this year to replace intramural competition between classes.

Intramural tournaments are held for individual sports, and awards will be made to the winners. On the basis of a point system, the Newcomb N, a pin, sweater, and a blanket will be given to the girls who have shown the most interest and enthusiasm in Newcomb Athletics.

GREENBACKERS

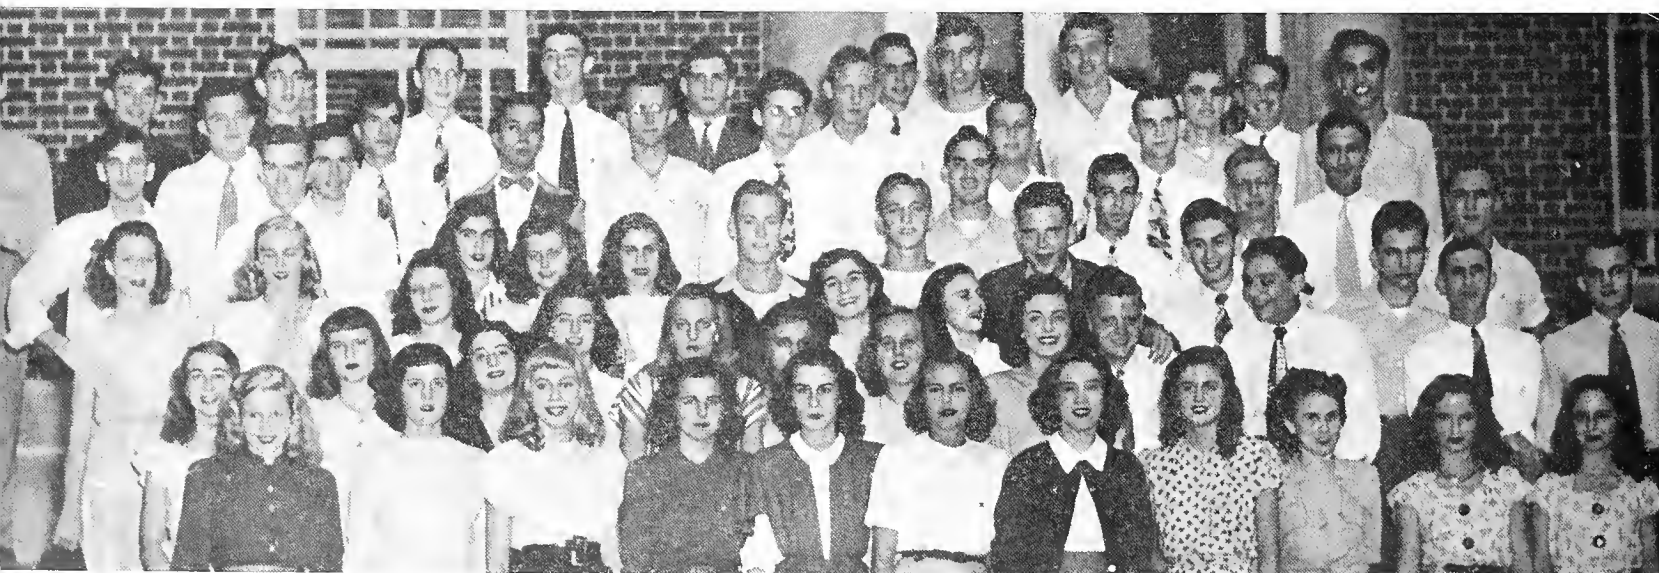

The organization on the Green Wave campus to promote school spirit, Greenbackers not only participated in this capacity during the football season, but also carried it out throughout the year. Ably led by Bobby Watters, Greenbackers assisted in card displays which were put on by Newcomb freshmen. Also pep rallies were held on nights before games inside and outside of McAllister Auditorium.

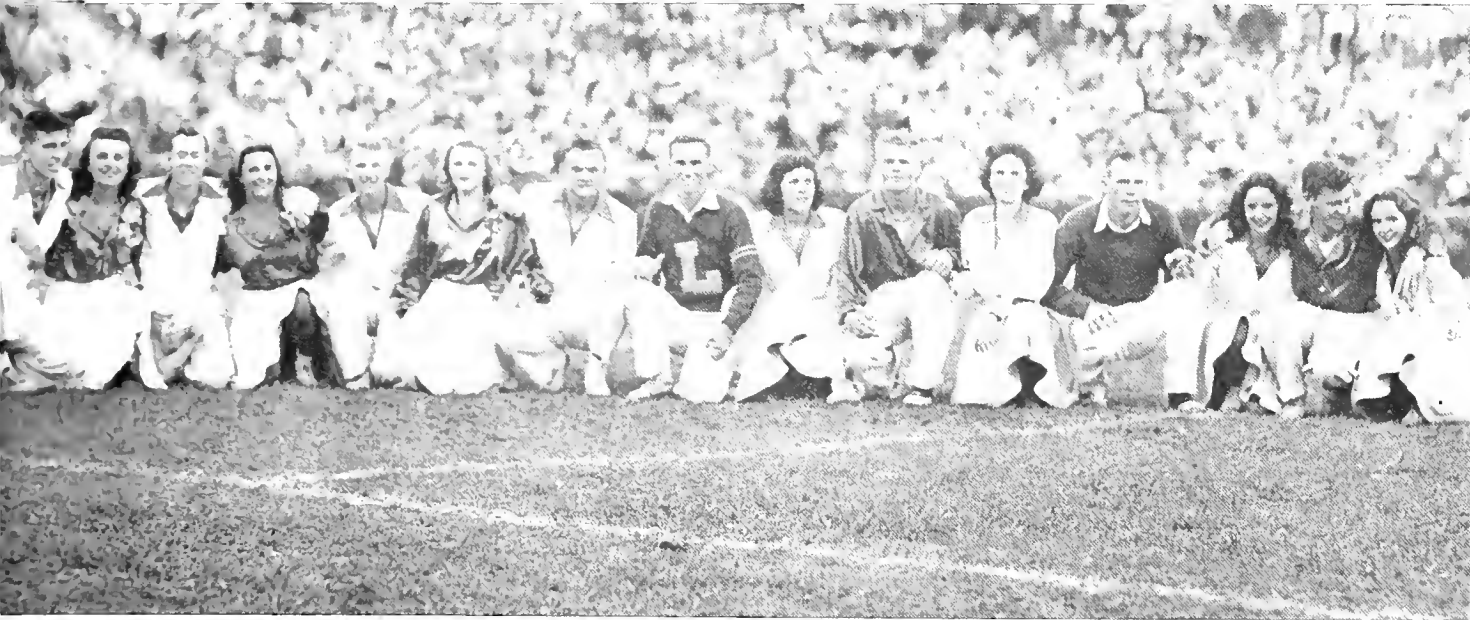

The addition of housing units on the campus prevented the usual weekly bonfires, but prior to the Louisiana State game one was had on the Willow Street side of the auditorium. In collaboration with Tulane Jive Band, a last minute pep rally was held outside of Tiger Stadium in Baton Rouge, after which the Tulane student body followed the band into the stadium.

During the basketball season Greenbackers sponsored a "Meet the Team" party in the Student Center, at which time Coach Wells and the members of the team were introduced. At the home games, which were played at the Coliseum Arena, this organization aided the officials in reserving a student section.

"Bigger and better student dances with an occasional Name-band" is the motto as well as the aspiration of Lagniappe, Tulane student dance organization. "Something for Nothing" is the literal translation of the title and the members of Lagniappe live up to it, by sponsoring street dances, the Homecoming Dance, the Freshman Dance, and a Varsity Drag during the year.

This year Lagniappe honored the outstanding athletes of the year by having Tommy Tucker and his band for a University Varsity Drag.

Rehearsing "Night Must Fall."

The Tulane University Theatre is now in its tenth year of play production, offering to university students theatrical experience in acting, stagecraft, costuming and make-up. In its ten-year existence, it has presented plays of every variety. The presentations ran from Shakespeare to Saroyan.

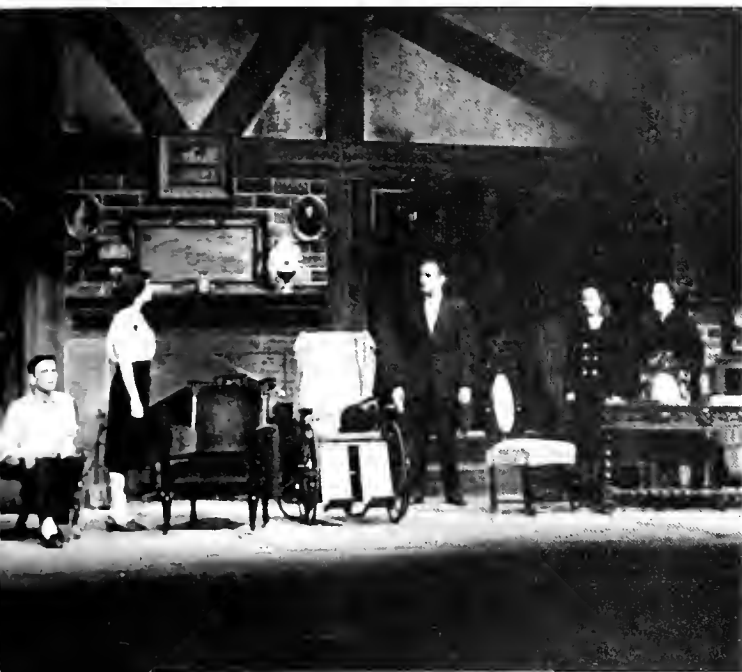

The current season was opened with Emlyn Williams' psychological melodrama Night Must Fall. The three night run has been expanded to four and for the first time in its history, a formal opening night was inaugurated. Between its productions, the Tulane University Theatre constructed the setting for the Choral Groups' annual Gilbert and Sullivan operetta, Patience.

W. L. Dingwell, acting head of the Department of Theatre and Speech, is directing current productions and heading the TUT staff. Also for the first time, the University Theatre has its own designer, George W. Hendrickson. Student offices are held by Leonhard Dowty (Executive Secretary) and Joan Opatowsky (Librarian). The Tulane University Theatre has an active chapter of the honorary dramatic fraternity, National Collegiate Players. The members are chosen from students that are outstanding in the theatrical field.

CAMPUS NIGHT

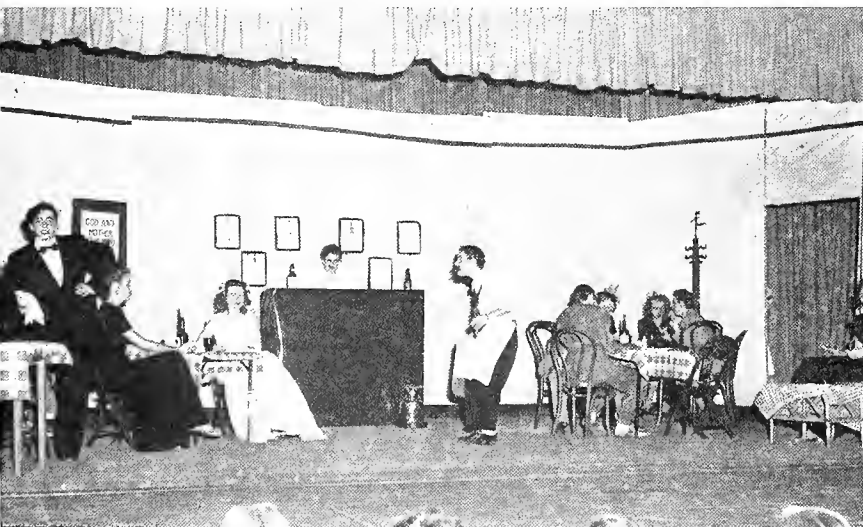

This year Campus Night was organized under an entirely new system. With two co-chairmen, one from Tulane and one from Newcomb, a stage manager, assistant stage manager, a three man production committee, and a publicity manager, real productions were attempted. A Homecoming Campus Night playing to a crowd of 3000, featured the Tulane Band, plus several variety acts and the presentation of the Homecoming Queen and her Court, escorted by some of the old "greats" of Tulane football. "Pig-skin Parody," a football satire, featured the first chorus line made up of Newcomb girls that danced together.

THE BAND

The Tulane Band was reorganized last spring when Director John J. Morrissey returned from the Army. The first concert was presented three months later. During the football season, the band presented special arrangements, marches, and Tulane songs at the games. In November the band appeared indoors in the feature spot of Homecoming Night presenting three numbers written by Mr. Morrissey. Two concerts were held in the spring.

CHORAL GROUPS

The Choral groups of Tulane and Newcomb offer a varied program to those interested in group singing. They play an important role in the life of the University, participating in many of the official ceremonies, as well as the student productions. There are six organized groups which take part in these activities.

Under the direction of Maynard Klein of the Newcomb School of Music, the finest choral music is presented. Their repertoire varies from the masterpieces to the works of contemporary composers.

The groups perform annually at the Newcomb Memorial Service, the University Baccalaureate Services, and at other events that might require their services. Each of them has appeared on programs of national and city-wide scope.

The Tulane and Newcomb Glee Clubs form the backbone of the choral organizations, the only requirement for membership being an interest in singing. This year, they are just coming back to full strength after the lean years of the war, and ambitious programs have been planned for the near future. Both present spring concerts, and special groups drawn from their membership perform for civic organizations throughout the year.

The A Capella Choir, which consists of the most advanced singers of the University, has attained an enviable reputation. It has, in past years, appeared on the Music and American Youth Program over a national hookup, sung on the stage of the Metropolitan Opera House, and has appeared with the New Orleans Symphony in the Spring Fiesta. With the greater variety of talent available, the Choir is attaining its pre-war excellence.

This year, the twentieth presentation in the traditional series of Gilbert and Sullivan operettas took place, marking the second beginning of the cycle. Patience, the first to be presented, was also this year's production. Every operetta written by the two has now been presented on the Tulane campus.

Another activity is the presentation of an unusual and seldom heard opera each year. Since the initial presentation in 1930, ten of these have been produced, including Purcell's "Dido and Aeneas," Milton's "Comus," Gay's "Beggar's Opera," and others.

The Festival Choir, which is composed of voices drawn from the students and faculty of the University and from all parts of the city, is the largest of the groups. It presents Handel's "Messiah" each Christmas, appears in seasonal concerts, and on special occasions. It concentrates on mass singing for special effects.

THE SPECTATORS

JOHN HUSBAND
Faculty Adviser

The Spectators is not a new organization on the campus. It boasts as alumni a number of accomplished writers as well as members of the faculty of this University.

Originally the Spectators was a male organization only, but in 1942 the group was reorganized, and girls were admitted as members. Since that time they have been extremely active in furthering the club's literary aims.

Spectators meet on Friday afternoons. At these meetings various original works are read and discussed with an eye toward mutual improvement in writing and criticism, and with the incidental purpose of enjoying the occasion. These meetings, which are keynoted by informality and spontaneity, are supplemented by monthly evening meetings, open to all who are interested.

In addition to these activities, the Spectators publish periodically, "The Tatler," an expression of representative literary efforts.

Glendy Burke Literary and Debating Society is the dean of all Tulane organizations. It is the oldest organization on the campus, having been established in 1880 when the University was known as the University of Louisiana. In honor of its founding, the organization holds an annual banquet each January 21. The primary purpose of the society is to foster forensic and literary activities.

In addition to scheduled formal debates among members and with other universities, and addresses delivered by prominent outside speakers on carefully selected subjects of a political, economic, or social nature at regular meetings, the members have currently been conducting weekly forums on timely controversies over radio station WDSU. Membership in the organization is limited to 48 male students, each one representing one of the states of the nation in general discussion. In order to encourage debating among local high schools, the society sponsors annually the Glendy Burke high school debating tournament.

Glendy Burke reached the zenith of its glory by winning the Men's Championship of the Grand National Debating Tournament of 1946.

The function of the Tulane Forum has been to present a liberal insight into all controversial issues through short informative lectures given by experts on the topics, followed by a general debate. The audience is composed of University personnel and visiting friends.

Speakers and topics, ranging from contemporary issues to the function of campus music, are selected by the student-faculty board, a student member of which supervises the discussion as moderator. Dr. Harold N. Lee, head of the Newcomb philosophy department, is faculty adviser.

TUSK started through the efforts of seven students who have above average school spirit. The aim of the Klub is to promote anything that will benefit both students and the University. Their full name is Tulane University Spirit Klub.

One of the high points of the year was the Homecoming bonfire and smoke dance with torches. The famous little Greenie stunts were started at the Notre Dame game and were continued for the rest of the football season. The white jacket that ear-marks a TUSK is not really needed, because of his or her display of school spirit and good fellowship.

The purpose of the University Art Club is to promote University art principles throughout the community. The activities consist of a series of outstanding movies, some art, others documentary, dance, and animation films, with a speaker to introduce the program and a panel discussion afterwards. The Club takes part in annual orientation and Christmas parties, and a spring gallery exhibition. An interest in art is the only requisite for membership.

The French Club was recently organized to provide an extra-curricular activity which would foster student interest in French subjects as well as the language itself. Activities include discussions, lectures by outstanding speakers, investigation of French customs and traditions in the French Quarter.

MATHEMATICS CLUB

The Math Club was organized at Tulane in 1940 by Dr. William Duren, professor of mathematics in the college of Arts and Sciences to present the interesting aspects of mathematics that are not covered in the classroom.

Any student who has taken elementary calculus is eligible for membership.

Official procedure of the Math Club is to present a lecture at each meeting. The speaker is usually a faculty member or a student. The meetings are held on the second Thursday of every month.

The German Club was recently formed on the Tulane campus. The first meetings were held by the German faculties of both Tulane and Newcomb. Its express purpose is to bring the German student and all those interested in the German language in contact with German culture. More than fifty-five students attended the first meeting. The German Club is rapidly becoming a popular campus activity. Its songs and its programs present a cheerful atmosphere. The presentation of the Christmas play "Weihnachtspiel" in Dixon Hall was a big feature of the Club this year.

La Tertulia was founded at Newcomb College in 1941 to give students practice in conversing in Spanish and the opportunity to hear well-known speakers. The yearly season is inaugurated with an outstanding speaker who lectures on Christopher Columbus. The Christmas Party and Spring Fiesta are highlights of the yearly activities in addition to the regular monthly meetings at which a special speaker gives an interesting lecture.

TULANE VETERANS' ASSOCIATION

The Tulane Veterans' Association is an organization through which veterans of the college can make their opinions heard. The T. V. A. is unaffiliated with any national organization and is an official student activity. It provides functions for veterans, information concerning veterans at its meetings, and takes an active part in school politics.

In early December the organization sponsored a very successful campus-wide dance for all veterans. Earlier in the year it held a debate among its members. The organization has set up a committee to provide information concerning veterans and this year it has circulated various petitions throughout the campus to further this undertaking.

PHI DELTA PHI LAW FRATERNITY

TULANE LAW REVIEW

The Tulane Law Review, successor to the Southern Law Quarterly, is recognized internationally as one of the world's outstanding journals of civil and comparative law. It was the first law review to be published in the state of Louisiana and is one of the primary research sources for Louisiana lawyers and scholars.

The work of the Review is borne chiefly by a Student Board of Editors, composed of junior and senior law students who have attained the highest scholastic honors in the College. They are assisted by a faculty adviser, a board of alumni editors, a board of advisory editors, and a staff of contributing editors.

The opportunities for free discussion of current legal problems, for scholarly research, and for expository writing based upon statutory interpretation, analysis of decision, and synthesis of doctrine are invaluable to the serious law student who wishes to ground himself in the principles of juristic thought and expression.

The faculty guides the student efforts during the year and in addition prepares leading articles for publication in the Review. Each volume of the Review contains articles by a number of scholars with either national or international reputations.

The Moot Court competition is carried on at Tulane for the purpose of giving students practical experience in research, brief writing, and court room demeanor. The cases are prepared by the faculty and members of the Board of Advisors, and include appellate cases for the freshmen and both appellate and trial cases for the junior-senior competition.

Moving into the new Tilton Hall after Christmas, the Board was given spacious quarters and a new court room, its pride and joy. Rapidly catching up on a back log of students who had not had their freshman cases, as well as an unusually large enrollment of new students, the Board has now regained its pre-war schedule and methods of operation.

HISTORY OF MEDICINE

LEWIS B. CLAYPOOL
President

The History of Medicine Society's big contribution to the school this year was the presentation to the medical library of a thousand dollars for the establishment of a History of Medicine Fund. Founded in 1933, through the stimulus of Gordon Holcomb, Gres Dawson, and Bernard Weinstein, the organization is primarily interested in tracing developments and seeking factual information in its field.

Meetings are held every other Friday night at the Student Center, student members alternating with faculty members in the presentation of papers. At an annual banquet in the spring, newly-elected members are presented with membership certificates, officers for the next year are introduced and awards are made. These include the Rudolph Matas award for the best student paper, the I. I. Lemann award for the best discussion of a paper and the B. B. Weinstein award for the most outstanding research done by a student member.

STONEWALL STICKNEY
President

The principal purpose of the twenty-five-year-old Owl Club since its inception has been to promote in the faculty and student body a thorough understanding of the problems in teaching and in being taught courses of a medical curriculum. Its less tangible efforts have been directed toward the promotion of a high standard of professional ethics in the student body, and in maintaining Tulane in its place as one of the country's foremost medical institutions.

The Owl Club of 1946, in addition to full pursuit of its more traditional enterprises, established the Tulane Medical Research Fund to be used for the maintenance and promotion of research within the school. This year's group has continued the work for the fund, and has also undertaken to simplify and facilitate the selection and securing of internships for the seniors of 1948 and of years to come.

It is composed of twenty-four senior members chosen, half by the outgoing club, the remainder by the selectees.

Alpha Chi Sigma is a professional chemical fraternity open to qualified men in chemistry and allied fields. The objects of the fraternity are:

1. To bind its members with a tie of true and lasting friendship.
2. To strive for the advancement of chemistry both as a science and a profession.
3. To aid its members by every honorable means in the attainment of their ambitions as chemists throughout their lives.

The Alpha Tau chapter at Tulane sponsors an essay contest in chemistry at Tulane and in qualified high schools in the city. It also sponsors a safety program and maintains a display case in the chemistry department.

Radio Club

T H E R A D I O C L U B

The tradition of this Club on the campus extends as far back as the 1890's when a transmitter was set up in the Physics building. The Club, in its present form, was organized in 1941 by David Korn. In 1945 a group of students, Al Buxton, Chester Lob, Arthur Glick, Jack Tallant, John Laurent and Bernd Falk, went on the air from Stanley Thomas hall and the post-war club was on its way. At present the Club boasts some thirty-five members from various colleges of the University, some holding amateur radio licenses, others unlicensed. One of the activities is a program of classes in Morse code and in radio theory to help unlicensed members prepare for the tests requisite to obtaining licenses.

STUDENT AFFILIATES OF AMERICAN CHEMICAL SOCIETY

The Student Affiliates of the American Chemical Society was established here during the summer session of 1945. The group functions to stimulate interest in the more modern advances in chemistry. Members have the opportunity to teach, learn, and to express themselves in the various branches of their chemical interests by the presentation of originally prepared papers, and by informal discussions. Dr. R. F. Holdren serves as faculty adviser.

ENGINEERS' TECHNOLOGICAL ATELIER

Behind shouts of "Erin Go Braugh" and "St. Patrick was an engineer," the Engineers' Technological Atelier presents itself as the engineer's school spirit organization. Founded in 1936, the E. T. A. is an honorary society which reaches into the field of knowledge by sponsoring the forum, which gives the student an opportunity for research on technical papers, and into the field of entertainment by sponsoring such activities as the Engineer's Smoker, Engineer's Day and St. Patrick's dance, the last of which is open to the entire student body.

TULANE ARCHITECTURAL SOCIETY

Founded in 1913, the Tulane Architectural Society is one of the oldest organizations in the college of Engineering. It has as its object the three-fold purpose of promoting fellowship among the architectural students, supplementing school work, and elevating the standards of the school by cooperation between the faculty and members of the society.

It is open to all Tulane students enrolled in the school of Architecture.

President of the organization is Leo F. Dufrechou. Serving in other offices are Jesse O. Morgan, vice-president; Albert G. Olivier, secretary; Pat S. Morvant, treasurer; and Joseph M. Shifalo, sergeant-at-arms. J. H. Thomson is faculty adviser.

AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF ELECTRICAL ENGINEERS

The Tulane University Student Branch of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers supplements the formal courses of instruction with the presentation of papers at meetings and with field trips to points of engineering interest.

Although technical in nature, the activities of the organization are not confined to professional functions. Truck rides, picnics, and ball games have been enjoyed in the past by this group of student members.

The student chapter of the American Society of Civil Engineers was established to offer professional associations and contacts which are invaluable to the practicing engineer. The student chapter supplements class instruction with lectures given by practicing engineers and field trips to points of interest.

The chapter at Tulane was inactive during the war years but became active again in September, 1946. Professor F. W. MacDonald acts as faculty adviser. The activities of the society, excluding the social functions, include meetings every two weeks and frequent field trips.

AMERICAN SOCIETY OF CIVIL ENGINEERS

AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF CHEMICAL ENGINEERS

Another of the several engineering societies whose aim it is to foster one of the branches within that field is the Tulane student chapter of the American Institute of Chemical Engineers, established on the campus in 1938. Membership is open to all interested in the advancement of the profession.

Lectures by prominent chemical engineers, papers prepared by the students, discussions led by faculty members, and motion pictures form the foundation for the group's monthly meetings. Supplementing the encouragement of student interest in the field, it further creates a means of contact between the undergraduate and the practicing engineer.

The Young Women's Christian Association was established at Newcomb in 1901. The "Y" meets twice monthly for open discussions, talks by outstanding personalities and debates. This year, a series of vocational talks was presented on the subjects of art, music, language, science, teaching, and literature. The "Y" takes an active part in freshman orientation, presenting a program of well-rounded events to aid the freshman in becoming acquainted with activities of the college.

"Y" traditions are the annual Christmas and Easter parties for a group of children from a local orphanage, and the Christmas tree placed in the main hall of the Administration Building. With the Y. M. C. A. of Tulane, it annually sponsors the Easter Sunrise Service, held in the quadrangle of Newcomb campus.

At present a comparatively small group, the Tulane Y. M. C. A. offers a common working ground for all young men on the campus interested in organizational practice of Christian ideals. It offers a channel, in the forms of various projects, through which practice of personal ideals may be directed as contribution to a common group effort and acceptance of the responsibility involved.

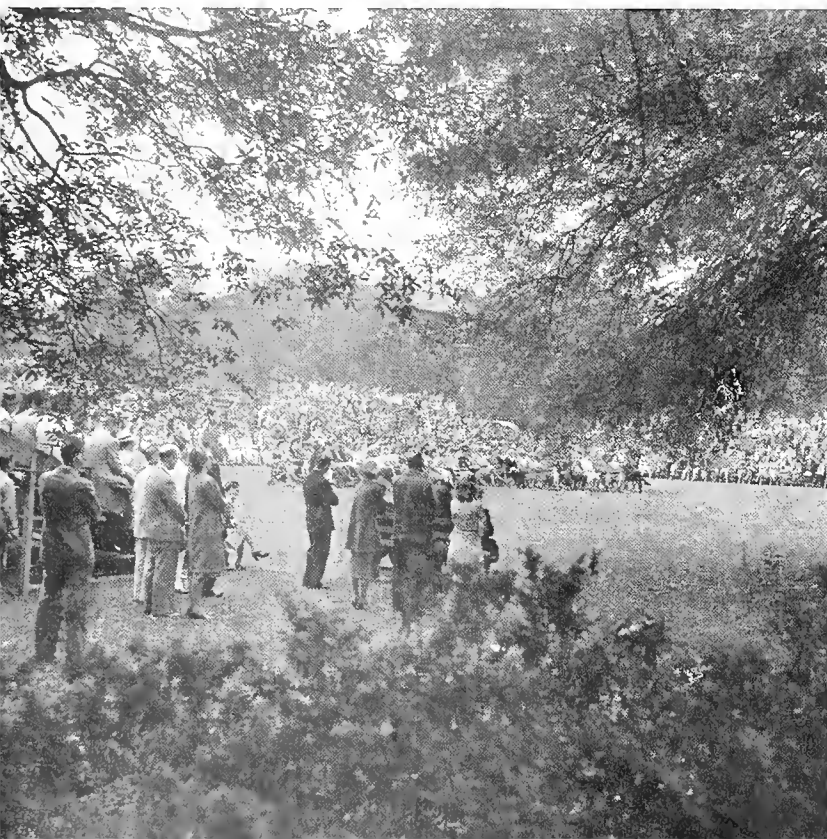

Some of the projects maintained under normal functioning of the group include sponsorship of monthly vesper services, the annual Easter Sunrise Service which it conducts in cooperation with the Newcomb Y. W. C. A., the Christmas decorations in front of Gibson hall, and assistance in such activities as blood drives, the sale of Christmas Seals, and support of the annual doll and toy fund.

This year has been primarily devoted to reorganization, and rather than sponsoring projects, the "Y" has been preoccupied in acquainting the members of its cabinet and executive council with their duties as defined in the constitution and in presenting to the entire membership a preview of the responsibilities involved in organizational project work.

The spirit of its response to post-war reorganization is a promise of whole-hearted devotion to the tasks of the future and a challenge to the incoming young men on the Tulane campus.

The Baptist Student Union is a spiritual force on the campus, offering the student Christian fellowship in a local church. Through its varied program, the BSU seeks to deepen the spiritual life of the student, to meet his needs in a vital and practical way, and to give him a carry-over value of church administration and participation.

Other than church fellowship, the social and religious life of the organization is centralized in the Student Center, which is open to students every day for study, fellowship, play, relaxation or meditation. Once a month there is a program for the students, with an outstanding speaker, or some other special interest. There is a social once a month for all Baptist students and friends. At specified times, there are points of emphasis, such as pre-school retreat, Join-the-Church day, state BSU convention, student night at Christmas, dedicated vocations week, student evangelistic emphasis, summer enlistment, Ridgecrest and others. There is a bi-monthly student publication which adds no little interest. The executive council forms the nucleus for the work. It is a year-round program of fellowship and sharing.

The Canterbury Club serves the mission of Christianity in higher education by fostering among university students a better understanding of the faith and practice of the Episcopal Church and loyalty to its corporate life.

Pending construction of the Francis Lister Hawks Student Center on the corner of Broadway and Zimble streets, the weekly Wednesday morning communions and the weekly Thursday evening discussion programs are being held in the temporary Episcopal Student Center, 7070 Zimble Street, corner Audubon. Other activities include four annual social events, such service projects as monthly prayer services at the New Orleans Home For Incurables and the organization of a Sunday School at Christ Church Episcopal Mission, Slidell, La.

The Christian Science Organization at the Tulane University of Louisiana was formed in December, 1943, and is authorized by the Manual of the Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts. Regular weekly testimonial meetings are held on the campus, and each year the Organization sponsors a lecture by an authorized member of The Board of Lectureship of The Mother Church. Students and faculty members are welcome at the meetings and lectures.

The purposes of this Organization are to unite the Christian Scientists within the University in closer bonds of Christian fellowship; to welcome Christian Scientists entering the University; and to afford the entire University the opportunity to learn the truth about Christian Science as taught in the Christian Science textbooks, the Bible and "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, the discoveror and founder of Christian Science.

The Alpha Upsilon chapter of Gamma Delta was established at Tulane in 1942, and has since become one of the prominent religious groups on the campus. The national organization was founded in 1934 in Chicago by representatives from 20 midwestern universities.

The purpose of the group is to encourage and maintain Lutheran fellowship and to establish fraternal relations with other Lutheran organizations. Adviser to the campus chapter is the Reverend A. H. Besalski.

The Tulane-Newcomb chapter of the Intercollegiate Zionist Federation of America was established in 1945. The group aims to organize and integrate all student Zionists on the Tulane campus to present and interpret the facts and significance of Zionism and modern Palestine for the education and benefit of the students and faculty.

Any student who is interested in Zionism is eligible for membership in the organization, which meets twice monthly for talks by prominent speakers, discussions, and socials.

The Westminister Fellowship combines spiritual guidance and instruction with various social activities. It is an organization representing the Presbyterian group on the campus.

Practice in Christian leadership is stressed, as each week the program is conducted by a student member. Affiliation with this group is a valuable way to keep in contact with fellow Presbyterians, and all are invited to join.

THE NAVY AT TULANE

On June 7, 1946, with the need for large numbers of naval officers no longer existing, the war-time NROTC program at Tulane came to an end. During the war years, Tulane prepared for active duty with the United States Navy and Marine Corps thousands of officers who saw active duty in all theaters of war. Now, with peace again reigning throughout the world, the Navy's training program at Tulane has been reduced to a size similar to the pre-war program.

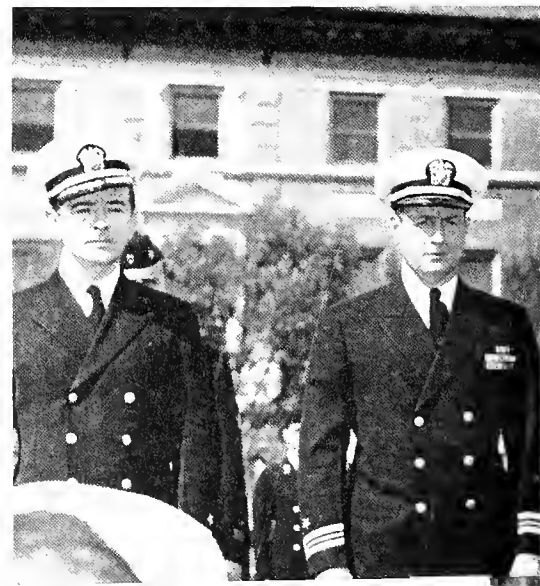

One of fifty-two American universities chosen by the Navy for peacetime preparation of regular and reserve officers of the Navy and Marine Corps, Tulane offers today, through its Navy programs, opportunities for its students who meet the requirements to prepare for a career in the naval service while attending the university for a baccalaureate degree.

Both in war and peace, the Navy has been proud of its officers from Tulane—and Tulane is proud of its NROTC Unit.

NEWCOMB PAN-HELLENIC COUNCIL

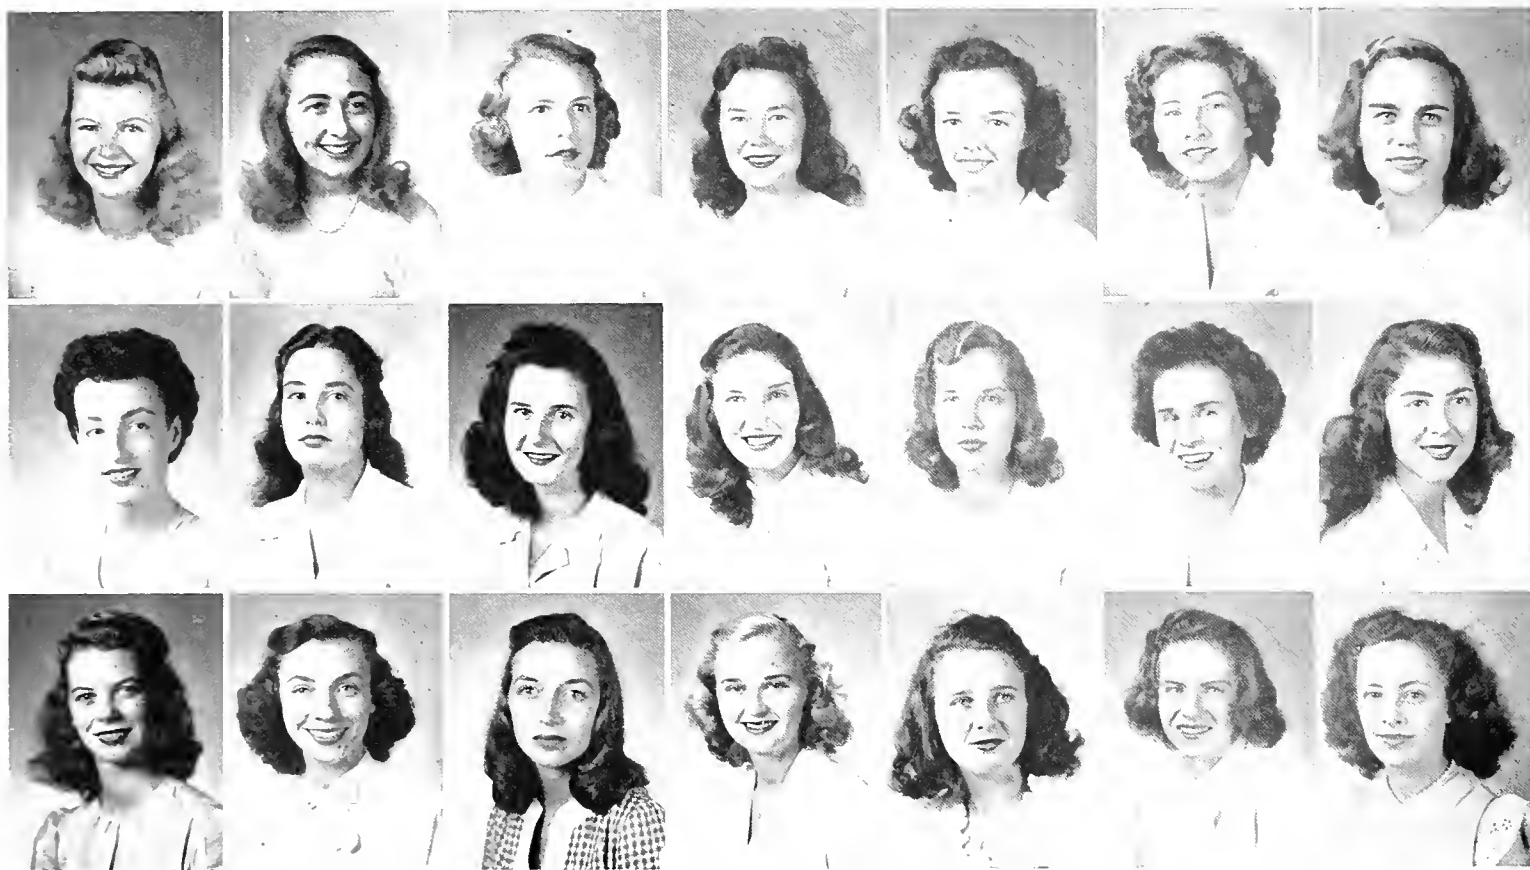

The stern hand of justice clamps down on any sorority that misses a letter in the Pan-Hellenic rushing rules when Newcomb Pan-Hellenic Association conducts a board meeting. Every sorority on the campus is a participant in the association and is represented by two active members on the board.

Pan-Hellenic ruled this year that rushing be deferred until the first weeks in March in order to rush only those girls who have a "D" or better average. The board also set up Pan-Hellenic Grievance committees in the dormitories to investigate cases of illegal rushing. Each year Pan-Hellenic awards a cup to the winner of the Sorority Campus Night skit.

The Epsilon chapter of Alpha Delta Pi staked its claim on Newcomb campus in November of 1906, and since then the chapter has kept Pine Street jumping with its many social activities. The girls this year have carried on the old tradition of southern hospitality by opening their doors before each football game with the welcome mat spread for one and all. They held their annual formal in March.

Alpha Delta Pi was represented this year by Carol Hamrick, who had a lead in the Newcomb Operetta, and Heda von Meysenbug, who was Pan-Hellenic president. Their insignia is a diamond shaped pin set with pearls and their flower is the violet.

BEULAH WRIGHT

Around 1916 when the Old French Opera House was ringing up the curtain on "Carmen" and "La Boheme," Alpha Epsilon Phi rang up the curtain on a new chapter on Newcomb campus and entitled it the Epsilon chapter. "Many Hearts, One Purpose," is the motto of these girls, and their hearts are always in many philanthropic activities such as traveling libraries, dental clinics and diversified scholarship donations.

Leading the Alpha Epsilon Phi's on the campus this year are Mae Hyman who is president of the Newcomb Art Club and Joyce Lutz who is active in TUT and the JAMBA-LAYA. The insignia is the Greek letters Alpha Epsilon Phi on a gold diagonal bar. The colors are green and white, and the flower is the lily.

MARIE STOUSE
President

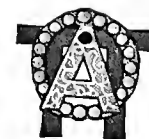

The Pi chapter of Alpha Omicron Pi traces its family tree way back to 1898 when it became the second Alpha Omicron Pi chapter founded and is now the oldest. In keeping with their heritage of a spirit of fraternity among the members, the Pi chapter celebrated with a Founder's Day Banquet on December 8, a chapter Christmas party on December 18 and a formal dance in February.

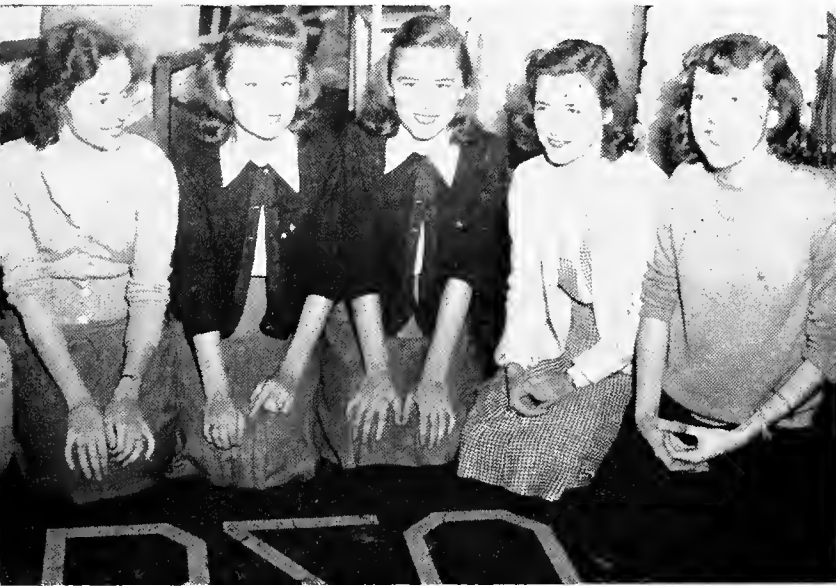

Holding up the family honor this year was Marie Stouse who was Newcomb's representative to the Rice Festival, Ruth Boulet who leads the Junior class, and Betty Meriwether who swings the gavel as Senior class president. Their crest is the sheaf and roses, the jewel is the ruby, and the flower is the jacqueminot rose.

Jean Lafitte, the pirate, set ablaze the coast of the Gulf of Mexico as he sailed along its shores stealing the gold and diamonds of the plantation owners and collecting the hearts of the creole belles. Since 1929, the Alpha Sigma chapter of Beta Sigma Omicron is notorious for collecting diamonds and stealing hearts.

Betty Berry edited the Newcomb Handbook and held the position of vice-president of the Newcomb Student Body. The year's schedule for the Beta Sigma Omicron's included a winter formal, a Founder's Day banquet and a complete redecoration of the "dugout." The insignia is the three Greek letters of Beta Sigma Omicron set with jewels, and their colors are ruby and pink.

MATHILDE TURNER
President

At the turn of the century when Newcomb college was becoming famous for its southern belles, Chi Omega decided to join the roll call and established Rho chapter on the campus in 1900. The Chi Omegas are still holding up the tradition in that respect, but they also contribute to the college spirit with their interest in campus activities and their full schedule of sorority banquets, formals, and bi-monthly suppers in their rooms.

Sally Foster carried forth the crinoline and nosegay tradition this year for Chi Omega when she wore the 1946-'47 Homecoming crown. The sorority pin is the Greek letters Chi and Omega superimposed on one another, and the colors are cardinal and straw. The flower is the white carnation.

Beta Upsilon chapter of Delta Zeta planted the rose of Killarney on the broad banks of the Mississippi in 1941. These modern Misses liven up the campus during the year with teas, "coke"-parties, truck-rides and monthly barbecues.

"Activity" is the keynote of their chapter, and it is followed to the letter by Jane Rodrigue whose spirited cheerleading highlights every football game. Mignonne Huck, chapter president, was maid in the Homecoming Court. The insignia is the lamp, and the Killarney rose is the group flower.

The Dueling Oaks were the scene of many crossed swords for a lady's heart way back when New Orleans was young. Now duels are fought by gallants on the corner of Audubon and Zimple Streets where the Beta Omicron chapter of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority has hung out the fleur-de-lis since 1904.

Felice Maurer, chapter president, wears the robe of the Newcomb student body president, and Betty Gray is acting corresponding secretary of the student body. "... and the sweet magnolias blossom around the Phi Mu's door and they got all their pledges 'til they can't get anymore;" so the Delta chapter of Phi Mu has been singing since they came to Newcomb in 1906.

Merle Fischer, Nina Sue Harris and Beatrice Baldinger carry the honors of the sorority on the campus. The Phi Mu's have been busy this year with teas, banquets and their spring formal. The insignia is a gold and black pin with the inlaid Greek letters. The flower is the Enchantress carnation and their colors are rose and white.

The cajun is still roi of the moss-draped bayou where he paddled his pirogue before days of the casquette girls and bataille of Nouvelle Orleans. Around 1891 Pi Beta Phi established the first sorority chapter, Louisiana Alpha, on Newcomb campus and added another historical date to Louisiana history.

Lydia Caffery, chapter president, wields the gavel of justice on the Honor Board, Laurelle Fillmore is co-chairman of campus night and Pat Phillips is Newcomb editor of the JAMBALAYA. The chapter is active in campus drives and celebrates the springtime with an annual formal dance. The insignia is the gold arrow, and the flower is the wine carnation.

Those low-down Basin Street blues were still rocking the nation in the late "twenties" when Zeta Tau Alpha established its Beta Kappa chapter at Newcomb in 1927. The girls are distinguishing themselves with their interest and activity in the many organizations on the campus.

Patsy Reinhardt carries the honors as president of the sophomore class. The Zetas entertain with truck-rides and after-game parties in their rooms. The insignia is the Greek letters on a shield and their colors are blue and steel grey.

Medical Pan-Hellenic has been active this year in social, scholastic and athletic activities. The annual Pan-Hellenic dance, held in March, has been revived after a year's absence. An innovation has been the establishment of an athletic league among medical fraternities, the winner of which will be awarded a trophy. In order to promote better scholarship, Pan-Hellenic has also established a trophy for the fraternity group with the highest combined average.

The officers for the year are: president, Richard W. Levy; vice-president, Lynn Hunt; secretary-treasurer, Stan Skillicorn.

PHI LAMBDA KAPPA

Psi chapter of Phi Lambda Kappa was installed at Tulane in 1925 and was first organized at the University of Pennsylvania in 1909.

This year the keynote has been one of common professional interest, including a series of lectures and medical motion pictures, and two papers presented by members.

The active members and a large number of alumni were present at the initiation banquet in honor of the freshmen members, and in the spring a formal dance was given. Other events included a novelty party, picnics and informal gatherings at the homes of the alumni.

The officers for the year were: president, David Caul; vice-president, H. Ruchelman; secretary, John J. David; and treasurer, Herbert Vogel.

Everybody's Favorite

ERWIN HECKER
President

Phi Delta Epsilon this year has enjoyed a full social season. Beginning with a banquet for their new freshmen, they followed with a series of after-football-game parties and held a few picnics on off Sundays. They are looking forward to their annual formal, held in the spring, and to the usual Mardi Gras festivities, complete with truck-rides in the big parade. The more athletic among them have entered into intra-fraternity football and basketball competition.

On the serious side, Phi D E has this year inaugurated a policy of holding joint meetings with its LSU chapter. A number of informative lectures on medical topics has been given at these functions.

Richard Levy, a senior, is this year's Medical Pan-Hel president and vice-president of the fraternity. Erwin Hecker is president.

Founded at Northwestern University Medical School in 1890, the Delta Omicron Alpha chapter was established at Tulane in 1918. It is an international fraternity with 35 active chapters from Halifax to San Francisco.

Activities include monthly informal dances, the traditional Mardi Gras truck-ride and speakers and motion pictures to familiarize the members with the medical profession.

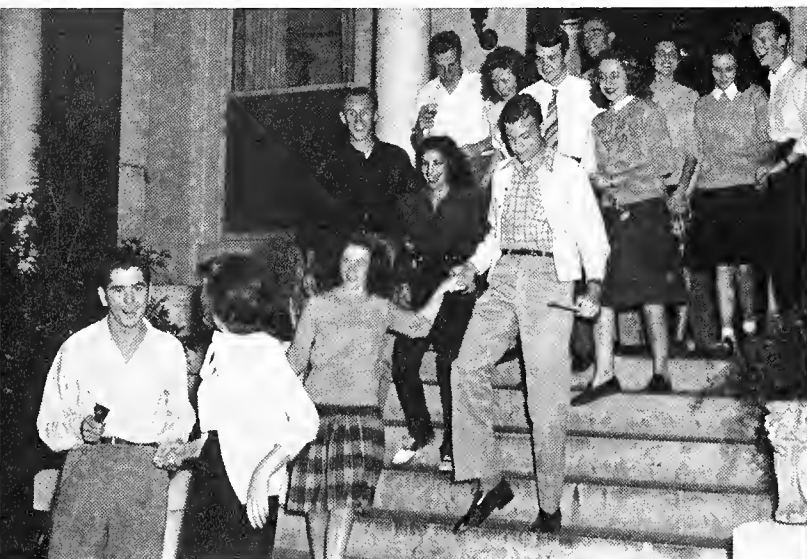

Officers are Francis L. Jaubert, Jr., president; Stewart J. Boren, vice-president; Michael R. Blais, secretary; Charles C. Jaubert, treasurer.

VERNELLE FOX
President

Alpha Epsilon Iota, national women's medical fraternity, was founded in 1890 and the Mu chapter established at Tulane in 1909.

Meetings are held at the New Orleans Dispensary for Women and Children. The activities of the fraternity are both educational and social. Throughout the season prominent physicians gave instructive talks to the members, and among the social events were the Sadie Hawkins Day dance, tea for the incoming freshmen, and the annual Powder Puff Ball.

As a group, the organization is dedicated to the service of medical women.

Officers are Vernelle Fox, president; Flora Finch, vice-president; Katherine Krieger, secretary; Margaret Kerr, treasurer.

TULANE PANHELLENIC COUNCIL

The Tulane Pan-Hellenic Council serves as a governing body for the seventeen fraternities on the campus; each chapter has two representatives on the council. Outstanding among the many activities was the creation of a Pan-Hellenic fellowship to be awarded to a worthy student for graduate work in medicine.

The highlight of the social program is the huge Pan-Hellenic formal given annually. Of course, the spirited competition in all sports and scholarship for the coveted Pan-Hellenic trophy has been a feature down through the years.

Bill Quealy (Delta Sigma Phi) served as Chairman of the council, and Albert Fraenkel (Zeta Beta Tau) as secretary. Members of the judicial committee were Harris Copenhaver (Sigma Chi), John Ochsner (Beta Theta Pi), Forres Collins (Phi Delta Theta) and Herbert Baker (Phi Kappa Sigma). On the Athletic Committee were Dean Pfeiffer (Pi Kappa Alpha), Hubert Walker (Delta Kappa Epsilon), Adair Pedrick (Kappa Alpha), and Joe Joachim (Alpha Tau Omega). Dr. Thornton Terhune again acted as faculty adviser.

MILES GREER
President

Founded: Miami University, 1839

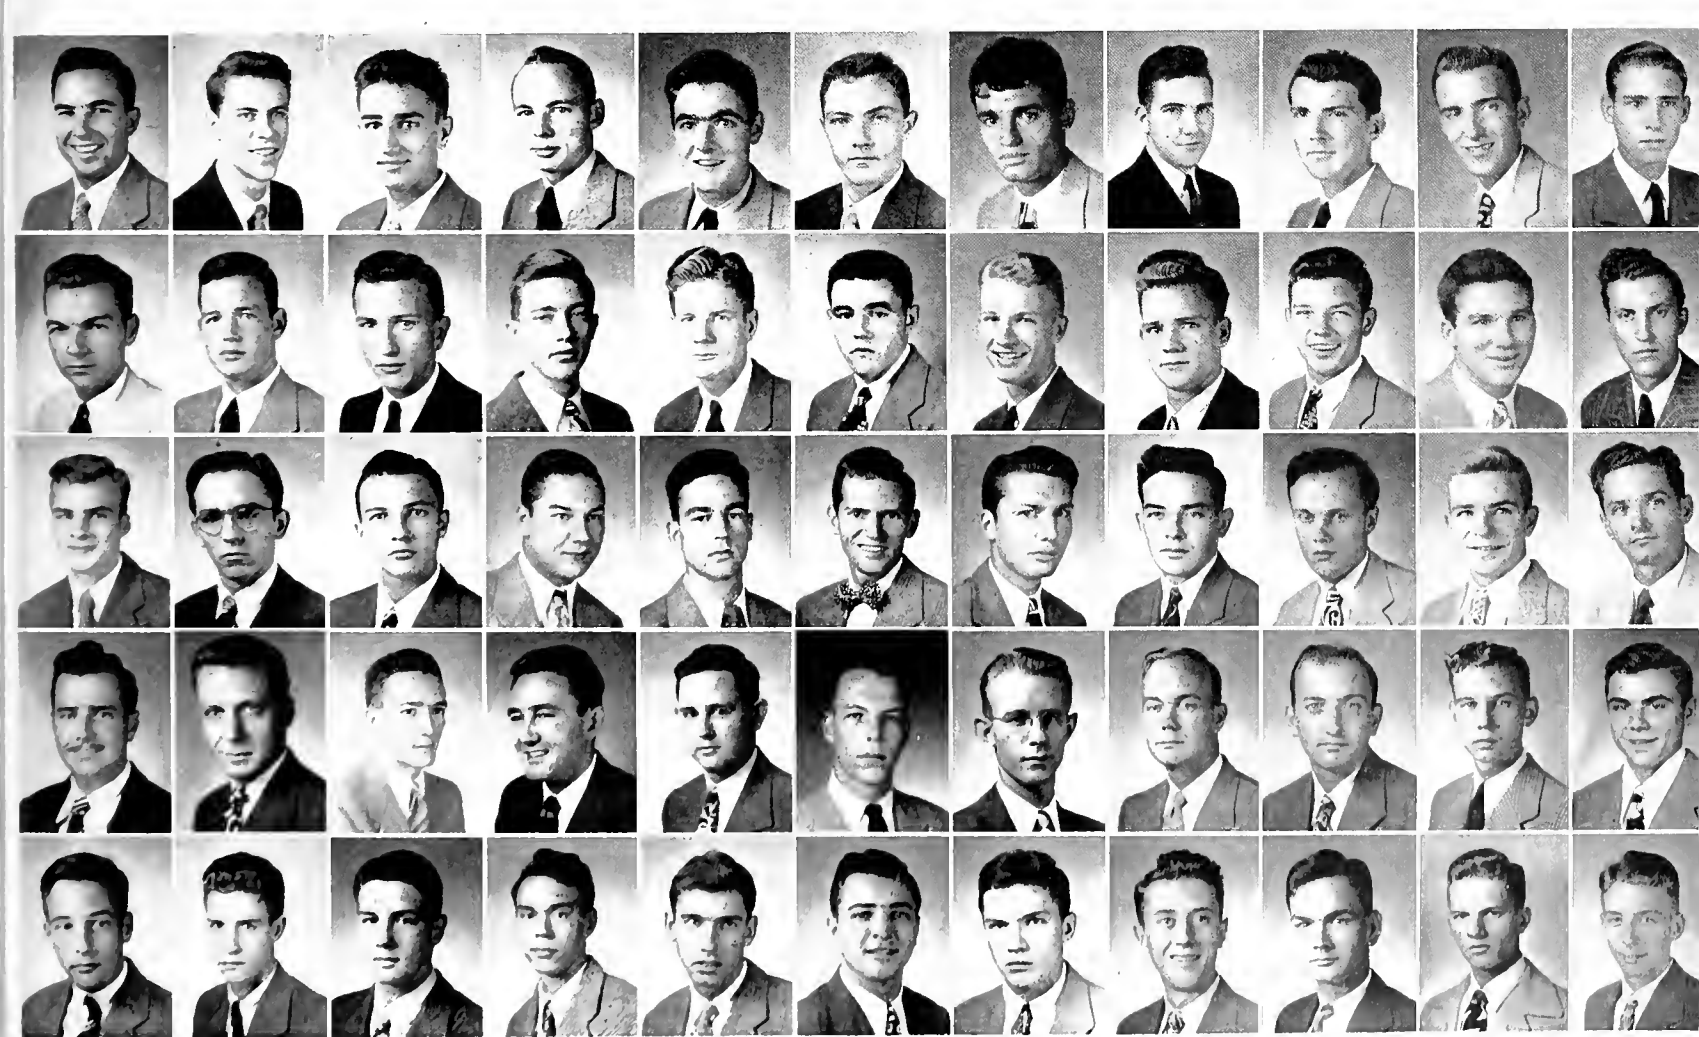

Beta Xi, 1908

The Betas take a lot of kidding when it comes to "baby pink and baby blue," but their actions on the field of athletics prove that they are a bunch to be reckoned with. In winning the Pan-Hellenic Cup five out of the past six years, they have shown what they can do. The Beta house, admirably situated next to Newcomb, was recently done over, thanks to the luck of the brothers in various poker and dice games. It is one of the few houses which forbids drinking on the premises, but the fact that the sidewalk is wide and handy is overlooked by the more broadminded. Annual dance is the Blue and White formal, so called because all participating assume these hues along about the end of the evening.

Miles Greer, hot bass man of the Tulanians, keeps the Greeks in hand, assisted by cheerleader Dabney Ewin. Walter Carroll snatches up any pennies which fall from the pockets of the boys, and Jack Counce does his best to keep track of the various and varied happenings during the weekly session.

The boys in the "Vout" house started the year off with a bang. Thirty-six pledges out-numbered the actives and crowded the house to overflowing through Bayou Brawls, cocktail and candlelight parties.

President Jimmy Legeai had big hopes for a championship football team, but they were downed in the semi-finals by Phi Delta Theta. Vice-president Elroy Scott and secretary "Doc" Guillot still have to get over it.

Delta Sigma Phi had the first formal of the year in the Tulane Room and it proved to be the first "formal" formal dance.

Beta Xi of Tulane is enjoying its best year since the war began. Enjoying is exactly the right word too, because the old shelter on Audubon Street has been vibratin' and reverberatin' to the uninhibited antics of Delts and Company ever since September. President Bill Cady "3" has been the driving force responsible for the resurgence of Delta Tau Delta at Tulane.

Parties have been numerous this year, but original, too. Perhaps the freshest idea was a dancing party with music supplied by a local radio station in a special Delt broadcast. Another interesting party was the one at which all dates were weighed in.

Homecoming was also a big event at the shelter—with the actives and the old Delts mixing with the drinks as only good Delts can. As usual the Delt Winter Formal was one of the highlights of the Tulane season. Everyone had a wild time at the Tulane Room, dancing "etcetera."

Founded: University of Virginia, 1869

Sigma, 1887

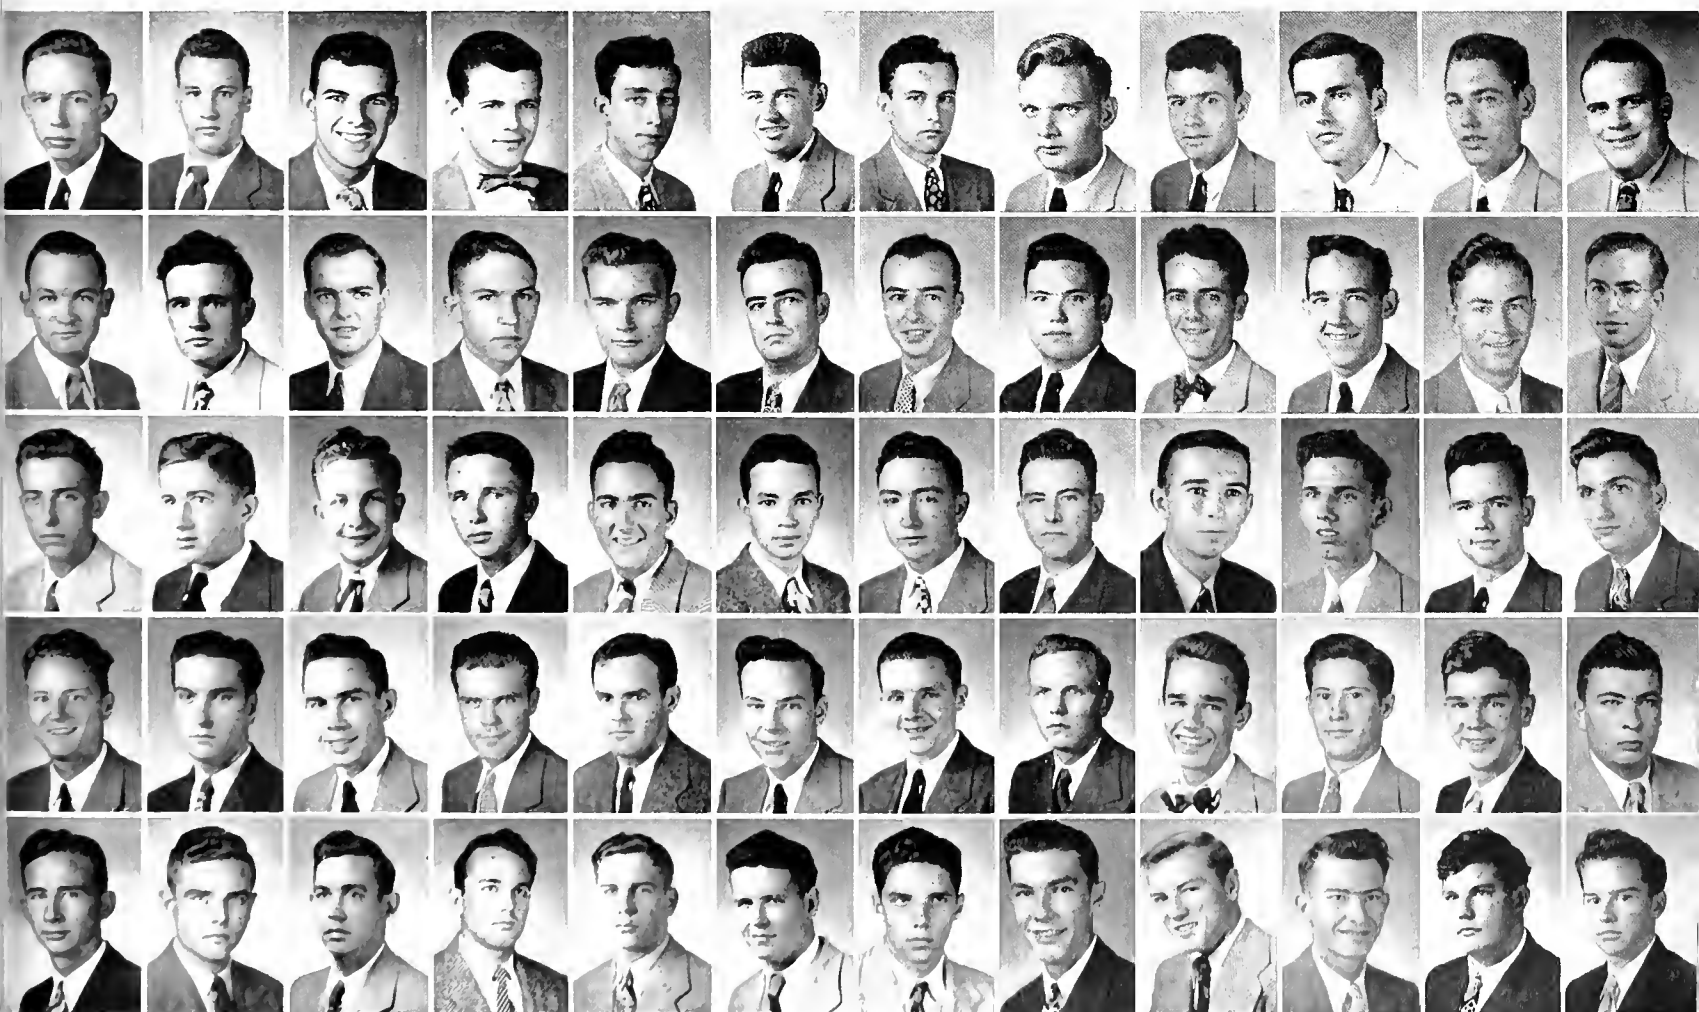

After the Kappa Sigs painted their house on Broadway, it was the scene of true spirit this year. The place was filled to the brim with returning veterans and new pledges.

They were dressed to a fourth place tune at Homecoming. Their winter formal, which was held at the New Orleans Airport, was highlighted by the antics of Dave Kleck dragging in his own ice-box, (as if the one there wouldn't suffice).

Grand Master, Bill Connelly, assisted by Jeff Willis and Aubrey White, guided the fraternity on its straight and colorful path. Dick Page, president of the Tulane student body, and Ed Hays, president of the Engineering student body, also are among the ranks.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

"First" is the best single word to describe Tulane's year in the field of sports. This year marked the first year of post-war athletics at Tulane—a year in which 25-year-old veterans and 18-year-old youngsters played side by side, both showing the Green Wave spirit. It was the first season for Henry Frnka and all but one member of his coaching staff; it was the first season for cage-coach Cliff Wells, ex-"Dean of Indiana High School Coaches"; and it was tennis tutor Emmett Pare's first season since his release from the Navy. It was also the first (there's that word again) year that Tulane operated under its new athletic set-up; that is, the department of athletics is now within the division of Public Relations. Claude "Little Monk" Simons relinquished his duties as head football coach to assume the chores of Athletic Director under the able Director of Public Relations, Horace C. Renegar.

The Greenies experienced a moderately successful year as a whole, but more important, the coaches were laying the ground work for the future. Basketball got the year off to a flying start as the Wave finished with a ledger of fifteen wins and seven losses. The spring sports came next with a sub-standard baseball team giving its best, and an out-classed golf squad losing three out of four matches. In tennis the Wave flashed a touch of potential greatness with a 4-2-2 record, and Les Longshore captured the Southeastern Conference singles crown. Coaches Fritz Oakes and Johnny Oelkers took the track team to Birmingham for the S.E.C. meet at which the Green finished third. Championships fell to Hugh Liles in the high and low hurdles and "Big Sam" Katz in the shot put. Finally, football found Tulane building for the future as the Green Wave won three games against seven defeats. Eight seniors wore the Olive Green and Blue for the last time, including a pair of the finest guards in Tulane history—Gaston Bourgeois and Elliot Iglehart—the first four year lettermen in modern grid history.

"Hurling Harry" uncorks aerial behind good blocking

STARS ALMOST FELL ON ALABAMA . . .

A rain-soaked record crowd of 64,371 witnessed Coach Henry Frnka key the Green Wave for a thrilling performance against the mighty Crimson Tide of Alabama, and, although favored to win by 19 points, Bama went all out to cling to a one-point victory 7-6. "The man with the missing vowel" was lauded by sportswriters from coast to coast for the manner in which he had junked the T, instituted the single wing, and then primed his boys for this important game. The Greenies really outdid themselves in holding the Tide to a one-point win—the closest they had been to a tie or defeat since the middle of the 1944 season. When you consider that Alabama had worked together as a unit for two full seasons, two bowl games, and two games in a third year, the performance of the Greenie freshmen and veterans was even more amazing.

Alabama was the first to score as the result of a fine 42 yard punt return by All-American Harry Gilmer and a ground attack climaxed by Hal Self's quarterback sneak over the goal line. Hugh Morrow, place-kicking specialist, then toed the game-clinching conversion.

That touchdown seemed to fire the Wave, for after a punt by Leonard Finley rolled out on the Bama eight, Jim Keeton ran back a return boot to the Alabama 40. From here the Wave surged over in four plays. Johnny Sims made eight yards off-tackle, a pass from Keeton to Ed Heider fell incomplete, and then Sims crashed tackle for seven yards and a first down. Cagey Finley diagnosed the tightened defense and then called for a pass, which Keeton promptly sailed into the outstretched arms of Sims who raced untouched over the goal line. Finley's attempt for the extra point was wide and the score stood 7 to 6 where it remained to the finish. A driving rain began immediately after the touchdown and continued the rest of the game.

Gilmer had little chance to uncork many of his spectacular leaping passes due to the rain, but his running was superlative. It was Finley who prevented "Hurling Harry" from doing too much damage by his booming punting, which backed the Tide to their goal line. One of Finley's coffin-corner boots went out on the Alabama one-yard stripe.

Ed Heiders play was excellent, as was that of Gaston Bourgeois, O. J. Key, Larry Rice, Ken Tarzetti, Sims, and Freshmen Cliff Van Meter, Stan Kottemann, and Keeton. Even though the weather conditions and mud brought the teams together, Coach Frnka and the Greenies made a remarkable debut.

Tulane won its first game since mid-season of 1945 as O. J. Key and Eddie Price led the Wave to a 27-13 win over a scrappy but outmanned Florida eleven. The Greenies missed Coach Frnka who was in Tulsa, Oklahoma and the two heroes of the Alabama tilt, Finley and Sims, both of whom were nursing injuries. Except for Key and Price, the Greenie backs did not look too sharp, and their pass defense was also rather woeful. The Gators gained 227 yards via airways by completing 13 of 33 tosses, and the Wave intercepted only two. Gator end Broughton Williams was on the receiving end of nine aerals.

The Green Wave promptly secured their first score on the second play of the game. Key ran to the left, faded back and flipped a pass to Hoot who had jockeyed the safety out of position. Covering 53 yards, the quick touchdown sent the spectators wild. Florida then took possession of the pigskin and held it for most of the first half, managing to push over one TD after Jim Leierer and the Greenie forward wall had engineered two fine goal-line stands. Vaccaro plunged from the two-foot line, tying the score 6-6.

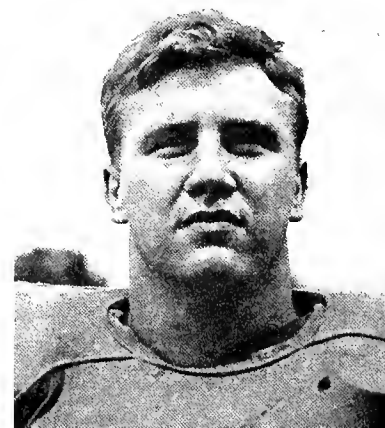

In the third quarter, the Greenies came to life when Key intercepted a Florida pass and returned it to the Gator 38. In successive tries, Key picked up 22 yards, Price got 5, and Key smashed 11 for a touchdown. Shortly after, Key shot a 25 yard pass to Tarzetti and Price turned on the speed in a 14 yard slice for TD No. 3. A weak Florida punt which Van Meter brought back to the 17 contributed to the fourth tally as Cliff alternated with Price and McCain in advancing to the 1 yard line from where Price banged over.

Florida's Parker filled the air with passes, mainly to Williams, and covered the length of the field to the one yard line, where Belden plunged for the score.

Racing Coach Jess Neely's Rice gridgers in their first Intersection contest the Green Wave outplayed them for all but two minutes of the first half before weakening in the second half to a powerful display of offensive might as the Owls rolled to a 25-6 victory. The first half was so completely dominated by the Wave that Greenie rooters held high hopes for a win even though a costly penalty allowed Rice to push over a touchdown two seconds before the intermission. But in the second half Neely proved that the best team he ever coached was one of the country's outstanding elevens. Virgil Eikenberg passed the Wave dizzy, and the flashy backs operated to perfection behind a line featuring All-American guard Weldon Humble, Ted Scruggs and Charles Mamburg.

The Greenies scored great in the first half although it was in the third period that Ed Price, running a T formation play, branced 70 yards for a touchdown. Mixing their plays well, Tulane paced by the hard-driving Key, outgained and outgained the Owls until the end of the half when a poor punt fizzled out of bounds on the Rice 46. After passing for 9 yards and a first down, Rice was held for no gain on three plays when Tulane was penalized for clipping, giving the Owls another first down on the 15. In three attempts, Eikenberg dropped a pass to Keener, in the end zone. The P.A.T. try was blocked.

A 45 yard pass to end Winpel Williams set up another score which Eikenberg made on a quarterback sneak. Ed Deramee broke through to block the conversion attempt.

Soon afterward Rice brokeed for his 70 yard run and Neely rushed in from behind back into the fray. The Owls scored again on a sustained drive from their own 42 yard line. In the final stanza Rice added six more points on an 85 yard march. A 25 yard pass from Keener to All-Waver drove Tulane's last rally as Rice intercepted the next pass and retained the ball until the whistle blew.

STATE GETS REVENGE

Ken Tarzetti, rugged and rangy terminal, drew praise for a bang-up defensive performance as did Deramee, Bourgeois, Tessier, Hoot, Campora, and Leierer.

The Wave rebounded a week later and poured "Green" over a hapless Auburn Tiger to the tune of a 32-0 conquest. Although he did not register a touchdown, Don Fortier provided the spark to the attack, shaping up as the most efficient tailback. Auburn put up a stubborn battle, but the superior reserve strength of the Greenies wore the Plainsmen to a frazzle. Travis Tidwell, who had come to New Orleans heralded at the nation's No. 1 passing and rushing leader, could add a sum of only 62 yards offensive total through the stout Green line.

In the opening quarter Keeton drilled a pass to Heider who darted into the end zone for the first score. Van Meter tallied the second on a three yard spin which climaxed a drive featuring the old Statue of Liberty play from Cliff to Dick Hoot.

Early in the third period, Fortier passed to Campora from the Auburn 28, and Johnny showed some fancy footwork to put the ball

In the fourth, after Key, who replaced Fortier, gained three yards, Price hit center for the touchdown. Key continued his hard running after the kickoff picking up 12, 15 and 2 yards on successive tries—the last one being good for six points. McCain smashed over for the first score. It was Auburn's first defeat of the season. By sending in substitutions freely, Finke curbed the scoring already; he was looking toward the future contests by using his freshmen as much as possible.

Against the high-gear Mississippi State team, the Tulane line came into its own and drew praise from Coach Finke by smashing the lined attack of the Maroon. Powered by "Shorty" McWilliams, Harper Davis, Billy Murphy, and Bob Pittman, State was forced to the air to get up the score, as the spine-tickling, vicious tackling forward was used the Maroon handled to 149 yards rushing. A questionable quarter of a fair catch was aided State in scoring the winning touchdown near the end of the game.

Tulane's touchdown resulted from Sims' crushing tackle of Davis.

which caused the ball to bounce out of his hands. Alert Heider snagged it in mid-air and lateralled to Fortier who sprinted over the goal. Heider converted, and the scoreboard read 7-7 until the last quarter. Finley punted to Murphy on his own 25, and, after signaling for a fair catch, he quickly drew down his hand as the Greenie linesmen smothered him. Tulane was penalized 15 yards; in rapid order, State completed two passes, and Bailey's line buck registered a 14-7 win.

Jim Leierer's line backing was spectacular; time and again he diagnosed the play and knifed through to spill the ball carrier for a loss. Deramee and Bourgeois played brilliantly, and Kottemann Tessier, Cuyler, Tarzetti, Heider, and Rice left little to be desired defensively.

The varsity had an off-day the next Saturday, and they watched the "World Series" or "B" team rout Copiah-Lincoln Junior College 46-6. Stevens, Svoboda, Hoffman, Schene, and Ruman paced a flashy attack against the outclassed Wolves.

Tulane got sweet revenge for Clemson's last season win, parading for eight touchdowns as Coach Frnka used 54 men in running up 54 points to 13 for Clemson. Mid-summer weather prevailed, and

The Tigers wilted before it and the zippy array of leather-luggers who scampered for TD's from as far out as the 48 yard line.

The first Wave score came when Keaton passed to Campora for 49 yards. Feet Ed Price circled end for 58 yards, and McCain ploughed center for 34 to increase the first half total to 19 points.

The scoring in the last half ensued from Price's seven yard buck, a 49 yard aerial from Van Meter to Edwards, Hoot's interception, Van Meter's one yard plunge, and Fortier's 27 yard scam after stealing a Clemson pass.

The Green's subs who again received valuable experience, looked very promising. The regulars were used sparingly since it became evident very early that they could toy with the Tigers.

After six gruelling games at home, the Green Wave journeyed to Atlanta where the yellow Jackets of Georgia Tech buzzed to their greatest heights. At 32,000 fans witnessed the 35-7 drubbing handed the Wave. There was no question as to the superiority of the Jackets: their quick blocking line thwarted the Tulane attack and their speedy backs were a touchdown threat each time they handed the ball. Except for two unbroken field dashes by Van Meter and Hoot, the Green's weren't up there to greet about. But the Wave never stopped trying to start great odds.

Tech's first drive in scoring in George Matthews' pass to Kilzer who had just started the Tulane backs and was waiting in the end zone. The second quarter Jim Gilmer recovered a Georgia Tech fumble on Tulane's 30. Nutt and Van Meter chalked up a first down on the 43 from where Cliff scooted around right end and cut back for a sensational 57 yard touchdown jaunt. Price greatly aided him with a crucial block on a Tech defender. Heider calmly kicked the extra point, tying the score at 7-7. But Tech bounced back with two more TD's before the half was over.

Homecoming throng greets Queen Sally

Galloping Greenie: Price picks up yardage

Hoot brought the crowd to its feet with his 57 yard run to the Tech seven, but Bobby Dodd rushed in his first string, and the defense stiffened. In four downs Tulane failed to gain as Tech took over and held on to the ball until the final whistle blew.

Notre Dame, the No. 1 gridiron power of the nation, treated 65,841 spectators, the greatest crowd ever to see a regular football game in the South, to an exhibition of football at its best. The grace and ease with which the burly Irish ran over the Wave caused the fans to wonder how Army held them for no score. The 41 to 0 loss was the largest score ever run up against a Frnka coached team, but Coach Frnka and the homecoming throng had the satisfaction of knowing that the Irish were one of the greatest football machines ever assembled, and the lion-hearted Greenies gave their best.

Tulane threatened only twice, once on a drive from its own 23 to the Notre Dame 10 and again on a pass interception by Fortier which he ran from the 33 to the 7. However, Terry Brennan grabbed a pass which slipped out of Al Waller's hands to terminate Tulane's touchdown ambitions.

Frnka and his staff tried everything in the book to halt the onslaught. They switched from a four-man line to an eight-man line, and they rushed in reserves in a desperate effort to click with the right combination. Yet Frank Leahy's superbly tutored eleven tramped over the Greenies on the sashes of Brennan, Sileo, Meloy, and Gompers, and the buxom beauties of A. J. American Lullaby.

The Tiger must have been loving his chops up at L. S. U. stadium after 30 minutes of playing time had elapsed, because the Purple and Gold boys were sporting a 28 to 7 half-time lead and prospects were bright for the worst spanking ever presented the Greenies. And Mike really was dreaming of Greenie gumbo for supper when the Bengals turned the second half kickoff into a quick touchdown to jump to a 35-7 advantage. Just as Mike was ready to slumber with visions of victory, banding about a hardbitten little goatback named Don Forrier very unpolite, burst his bee-you-tiful bubble and proceeded to strangle his hopes, although L. S. U. outlasted the second half bout to win 44-27. Don personally accounted for each Tulane score by passing for three and running the fourth. Even Y. A. Tittle, who generally has his annual field day against the Wave, paled in passing prowess before Forrier as he connected for 11 out of 20 yards for 155 yards. He strutted for 63 yards in 10 trips and returned four kickoffs 23 yards, almost reaching gloryland in two of them.

Tulane's kicking was extremely poor in the first half and L. S. U. took advantage of it plus three expensive fumbles, turning up four touchdowns. The stage was set for the blistering finish of the Greenies, a tribute to the spirit they displayed. Ed Heider collaborated with Forrier to nail all the Tulane points by scratching the three touchdown series and kicking three of four extra points. Also sharing the hero's row were Van Meter, Tessier, Hood, Price, and Suboda.

Poor Mike was thanking his lucky stars that there was no fifth quarter. Bidding farewell to football for 1946, Tulane lost 20-14 to Southern California, but the manner in which they pushed around the gigantic Trojans who outweighed them 16 pounds per man indicated that the Green will be nobody's soft-touch next fall. Tulane gained a total of 372 yards to Southern Cal's 301 and rolled for 20 first downs to Troys 10. Fortier, Van Meter, Waller, and McCain dazzled U. S. C. with their splendid running, and the Greenie linesmen gave A. American tackle John Ferraro and his playmates a lesson to remember.

Troy marched to a score in seven plays following the opening kickoff as Mickey McCarole unlimbered his passing arm with a 9 yard TD chunk to Doug Essick. A few plays later McCardle attempted to punt from the Tulane 46, but Bob Franz broke through, blocked the kick, scooped it up, and raced unmolesed across the goal. Southern Cal scored their second touchdown a minute before the half ended and their final score three minutes after the intermission.

Mike Balen bounced on a fumble to set up the Wave's other tally. From the 24 yard line Waller and Van Meter sliced off the tackles and McCain on a three yard smash, reached pay dirt through a big hole in the center.

It was evident that Coach Frnka was giving his 1947 nucleus an opportunity to gain experience. Freshmen Brown, Demma, Bienz, Wasieleski, and Villars played a substantial time and delighted the 25 000 fans by handling their chores in fine fashion.

Considering the new material, new system, new coaching staff, and the "suicide" schedule, the Green Wave did as well as could be expected this season.

Coach Cliff Wells made his debut in Dixie basketball circles during 1945-1946 with an inexperienced but eager Green Wave squad. For the third consecutive season the Greenies were confronted with the problem of finding a gym in which to practice, but Coach Wells and his determined young team overcame this obstacle to turn in several creditable performances.

By downing the New Orleans Naval Hospital in the opening game of the campaign, diminutive Coach Wells maintained his remarkable record of winning every opening game in his thirty years of coaching.

A feature of this year's competition was the scoring duel waged between forward George Cheek and guard Hal Peck. Peck managed to edge his teammate by four points 213 to 209 but the morriest was reversed by Don Duncan's 197 total which enabled him to press the two leaders for the honors.

Tulane won four contests and dropped five to Southwestern Conference foes, and in the conference tourney at Louisville, Kentucky the Green Wave bowed out in the first round to a strong L. S. U. quintet, 74-29. The powerful Kentucky Wildcats crushed all opposition in its march to the loop championship with the Bayou Bengals succumbing to them in the finals.

Following their first victory against the Naval Hospital, the Green Wave cagers surged over eight straight teams, being stopped by Alabama, 39 to 28. They bounced back in the winning column, however, with a stirring 67 to 50 triumph over Mississippi State. In their game with Jackson Barracks one week later, every one of the eleven Greenies who played scored at least two points.

In the first game of the annual home and home series with the Tigers of L. S. U., the Greenie courtmen journeyed to Baton Rouge and forced the more seasoned Bengals to stage a second half rally to nip them by 54 to 45 count. The Ole War Skule also copped the second game of the series at New Orleans, 52-36. In the final game of the regular season, the Wave easily spanked the Algiers Naval Station, 50-41.

Coach Wells' initial year may be classed as a successful one, and with his high-grade tutoring Tulane will soon field teams of championship caliber.

B A S E B A L L

Bemoaning the loss of Bobby Brown, Paul Enns, Dick Woodring, and Eddie Palmer to professional teams, the 1946 edition of Green Wave baseballers battled valiantly but were simply outclassed by superior nines from service and college teams. The New York Yankees and Detroit Tigers raided the campus before the season began, to snatch the nucleus around which Coach Claude "Little Monk" Simons intended to build his green squad. Particularly damaging was the loss of the sensational Brown who was reportedly given a $50,000 bonus by the Yanks.

"Little Monk" was plagued the whole season by a comparatively weak pitching staff, erratic hitting, and sloppy fielding. Third-baseman Mike Popovec's slugging spurt toward the end of the season and the steady hitting of outfielder Hal Peck, also the mainstay of the cagers, were the bright lights in an otherwise dismal campaign. An interesting sidelight was the hustling play of Catcher

George Nusloch who stepped right from the sandlots into his first season of organized baseball in fine fashion. Nusloch's "picture finish" home run with the bases loaded in the seventh inning enabled Tulane to edge out the Algiers Naval Repair Base in one of the season's best affairs.

Behind the two-hit pitching of Joe Baker, ex-Nashville Vol hurler, the Naval Air Station blanked the Greenies 2-0 in the initial game of the season as his teammates hopped on Warren Nelson who made an encouraging debut. Against the New Orleans Pelicans in the second encounter, Nelson was the most effective pitcher but the Birds hammered him for a 6-2 victory. The Greenies then won three straight as Nelson and Boyd Taylor turned in improving efforts on the mound. Tulane's stickwork was impressive in registering a 13-11 win over S. L. I. by virtue of a seven run seventh inning rally.

"Little Monk's" charges dropped a two-game series to Mississippi State in the first outing against a Southeastern Conference team, but Hal Peck's nifty fly-chasing and the clutch clubbing of Eddie Brennan and Mike Popovec were outstanding. Popovec blasted two home runs in the first game as the Wavemen bowed 11-9, and Brennan socked a homer and single besides hurling five innings in a valiant effort to halt State's 19-13 onslaught in the second fray.

Sparked by Popovec, Roy Barbier, and Ray Dufrechou, Tulane bounced back into the win column with a lopsided 19-5 conquest of the Naval Air Station. "Maulin' Mike" poled another home run in addition to securing three other hits as the Greenies handily ran up the imposing score. After whitewashing Keesler Field, 7-0, at Biloxi in their next game, the Wave took a nosedive and lost nine straight before ending the season by trouncing Barksdale Field 14-3. During their slump, the Olive Green and Blue lads dropped a pair of double-headers to L. S. U. as the alert Tigers pounded the tired pitching staff without mercy. Nevertheless, the Greenies extended the Bengals in every game but the first.

Baseball stock is expected to soar in the Tulane camp next season with several diamond stars returning from the service, coupled with the holdovers from this year. Coach Simons must take a bow, however, for getting the utmost from the limited, but spirited talent which comprised the 1946 squad.

CO-CAPTAIN HUGH LILES

On the cinderpaths this year the Greenies were sparked by several crack performers, but as a team they lacked all-round balance.

Co-Captain Hugh Liles for the second straight year annexed the S.E.C. high and low hurdles crown; and Frank Burge, also for the second time, placed in both barrier contests. "Big Sam" Katz, hefty freshman, heaved the shot over 45 feet for a third first place for the Waves while Spencer Johnson, Bob Parsons, and Co-Captain Bill McLane, middle distance and distance men, placed in their specialties as Tulane finished third in the meet.

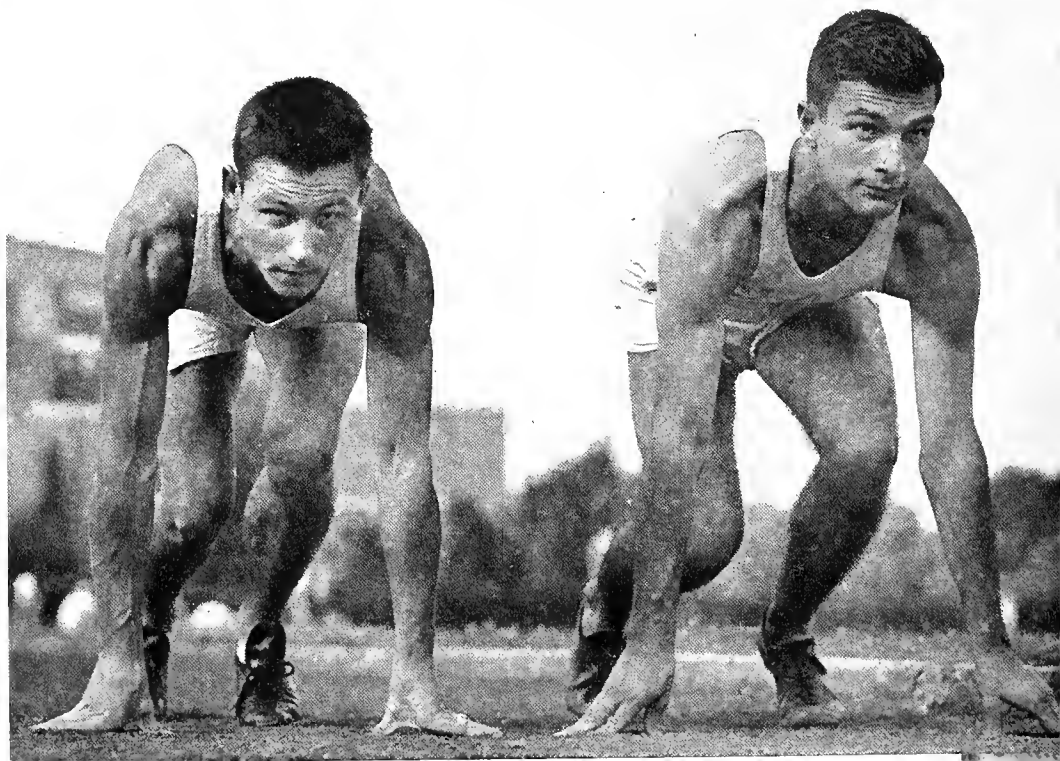

The high point of the year was the stunning jolt given L. S. U. and Georgia Tech in a triangular meet which Tulane won. Liles, Johnson, Katz, Parsons, Burge, Ray Arthur, Marvin McCain, Bob Frentress and McLane led the victorious Wave in their peak performance.

Tulane entered the Southwestern Relays and the Texas Relays in addition to dual meets with L. S. U. and the Merchant Marine Cadet School. Liles, Parsons, and Johnson represented the Greenies at the NCAA meet but did not place.

Led by Leslie Longshore, the Southeastern Conference singles champion, Tulane completed a good year on the tennis courts with a record of four victories, two losses, and two ties. Coach Emmett Pare returned from the service to tutor the Greenie netmen, who climaxed the season by overwhelming L. S. U. twice by 6 to 0 scores. Longshore, Captain Rufus C. Harris, Jr., Maurice Lagarde, Billy Conery, and Coultas Pears earned letters, with Harris and Pears adding a second stripe to their sleeves.

In the opening match the Tulane racqueteers bowed to the City Park Tennis Club, 4-2, but Longshore stood out by defeating City Park's hard-driving Allan Smuck 7-5, 6-2. The crack double combination of Longshore and Lagarde whipped the No. 1 City Park duo of Choppin and Bill Macassin in straight sets, 6-4, 6-4. Against the New Orleans Lawn Tennis Club, the Greenie rolled over a team of ex-Tulanians, 5 to 1, as Longshore, Lagarde, Harris, and Pears each convincingly won his singles match. Former coach Ernie Sutter and Billy Westerfield teamed to trounce Longshore and Harris, 6-2, 3-6, 6-2 for the N.O.L.T.C.'s lone victory in the feature contest of the afternoon.

Playing for the first time away from home, Tulane split even, 3-3, with Rice at Houston, Texas, as Harris and Pears won their singles matches and then turned back the Owls in doubles. Steady Sam Match handed Longshore his only defeat in regular season competition, 6-1, 6-2. On the following day, the Greenies journeyed to Austin, and were beaten 4-2 by the Texas Longhorns. After gaining an even break in the four singles matches, Texas outlasted the Wave to win both doubles contests. Returning to their home courts, the Greenies coasted to an easy 5-1 victory over the sailors of the Gulfport Naval Training Center.

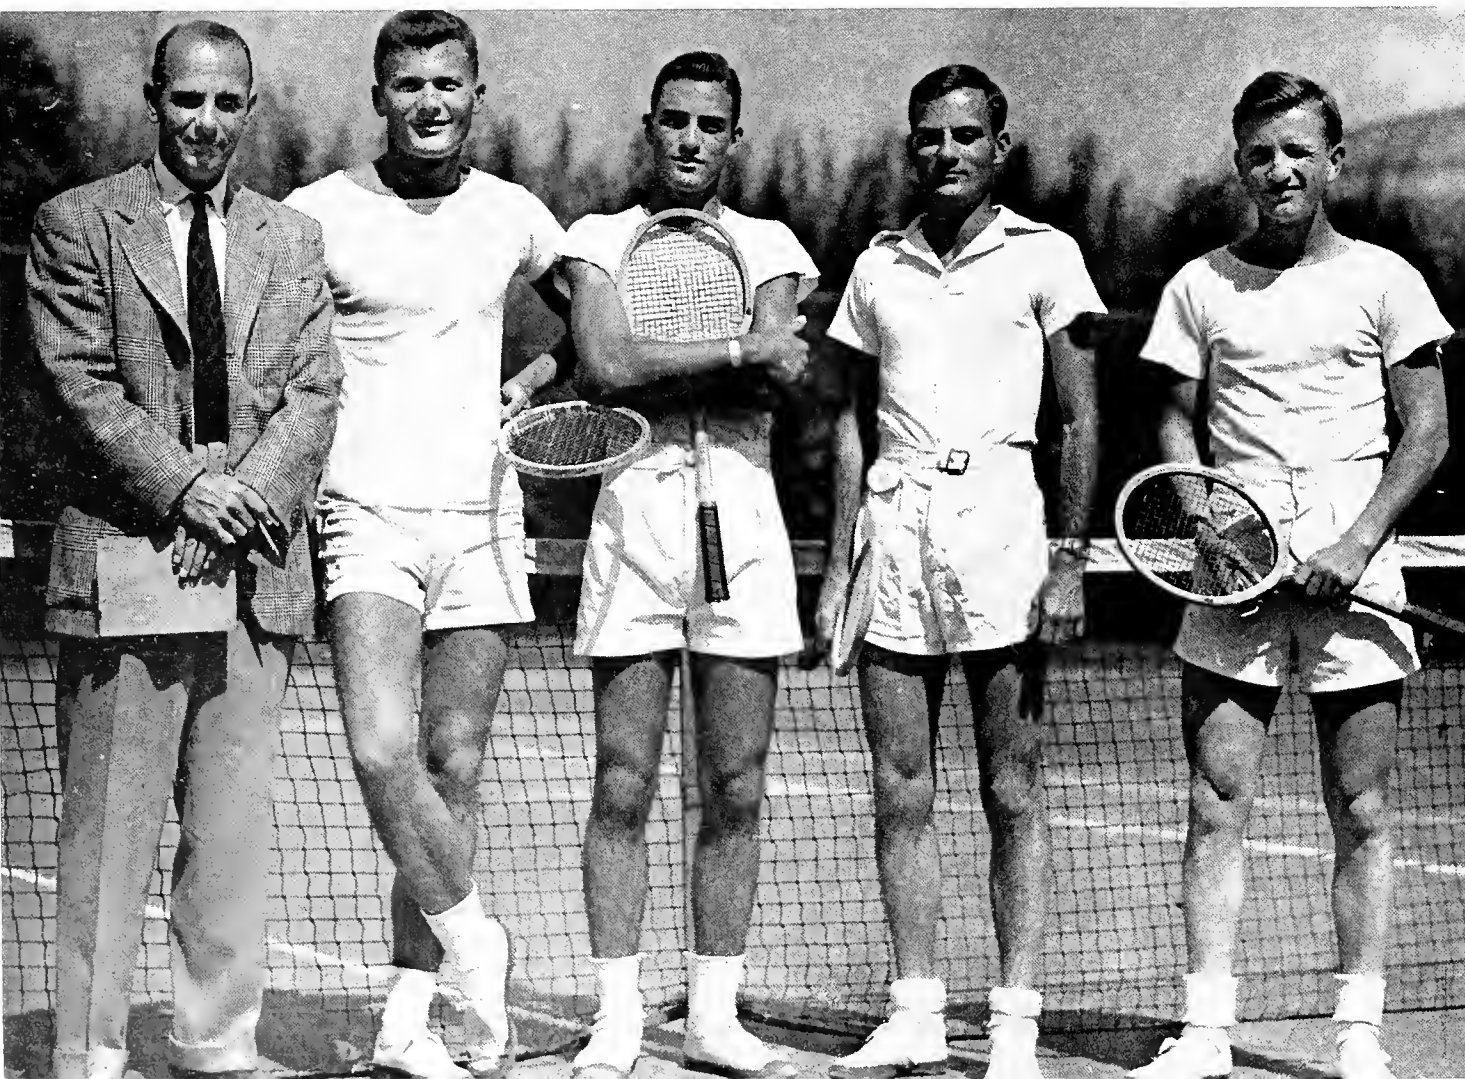

Tulane maintained their superiority over their L. S. U. cousins by severely whitewashing a badly outmanned Tiger squad 6-0. Billy Conery was the only Waveman to be extended, as his teammates made the Bengals yell "uncle" in both singles and doubles. The courtmen met Georgia Tech in their next engagement and surprised all by holding the smooth-stroking Engineers to a 3-3 draw—the first in twenty-nine contests that they failed to register a win. As a climax to this upset, Longshore bested Tech's No. 1 netman, Howard McCall, who lost his first match since playing as a freshman in 1943. His 6-1, 6-4 triumph ended McCall's fifty-one game streak. It should be noted that Lagarde, the very consistent No. 2 player, was permanently sidelined by sickness before the Tech match, causing Coach Pare to juggle his team considerably. In the final affair of the year the Tigers spent another gloomy afternoon as Tulane showed no mercy by again applying the calcimine to L. S. U., blanking them 6-0.

Georgia Tech captured the team crown in the Southeastern Conference tournament held at New Orleans, but Longshore walked off with the singles laurels by trouncing highly rated McCall of Tech in the finals, 10-8, 7-5. Longshore was seeded No. 2 in the conference; Johnny Hyden of Vandy, the No. 1 seeded player, fell by the wayside in the semifinals before the smashes of McCall.

Longshore and Harris carried the Tulane colors in the N.C.A.A. tennis championships at Evanston, Illinois, but they bowed out in the early rounds.

Coach Pare turned in a crackerjack coaching job with his first post-war team, and experts are looking toward Tulane for the cream of the collegiate tennis crop in 1947. Former national indoor and outdoor boys' champion, Dick Mouldous, is a certainty for '47. Jack Tuero, the highly regarded star who gave the 1946 NCAA champ, Bob Falkenburg, such stiff competition before entering the Navy, will be counted on to clinch a berth on the team. Freshmen Wade Herren and Walker Harris are two others around whom Pare will build his powerhouse. Then there are Harcourt Waters and Gary Albertine, both of whom played in the No. 1 spot before Uncle Sam beckoned. And when you consider that Longshore and Rufus Harris are returning next year, there is little reason to wonder why Pare is wearing a smile. Yes, the Olive Green and Blue tennis banner will again fly high.

THE TULANE GOLF TEAM

After an encouraging turnout of eighteen aspirants in the beginning of the golf campaign, Coach Innes Millar narrowed his links squad down to seven—Bob Duffy, Andy Carter, John Stahl, Malcolm Miller, Norwood Hingle, Al Stolen, and Ellis Woodward. These linksmen carried the Wave colors in the brief schedule of four matches, of which the Greenies copped one.

In a duel with Louisiana State, the Greenie golfers were beaten 11 to 7 as the Tigers' Jimmy Wittenberg and Bobby Cole each carded 73's to provide the margin of victory in their singles matches. Malcolm Miller scored the lone Wave win of the afternoon by trimming Luca Barbato. Tulane journeyed to Atlanta for a meeting with the undefeated Georgia Tech team who accounted for their fourth win of the season by defeating the turfmen, 11½-6½.

Using seven men in a match against Keesler Field, the Green Wave bested the neighboring servicemen 21 to 9. Tulane's Malcolm Miller topped the scoring with a neat 72, followed by Jim Jackson of Keesler and John Stahl, 73; Bob Duffy, 74; and Al Stolen, 75. L. S. U. drubbed Tulane 14-4 in the final match with Wittenberg and Cole firing 74's for the outstanding cards of the day. Duffy, Miller, Carter and Stolen represented Tulane.

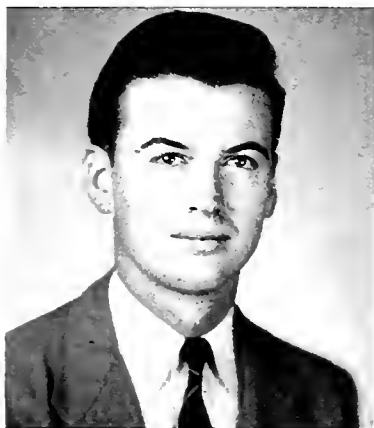

Stahl was the only Wave golfer who qualified for the championship flight of the Southern Intercollegiate Golf Tournament held at Athens, Georgia. He was eliminated in the first round, however, by L. S. U.'s Wittenberg, who reached the finals before bowing out.

The function of the Intramural Council is to encourage the entire male student body to participate in organized athletic sports, and also to encourage participation in active recreation. The Intramural Council organizes and promotes competition between individuals and groups of students and fosters the spirit of sportsmanship between participants and spectators.

In the past year, it organized both team and individual sports. The team sports for the year were basketball and softball. The individual sports included handball, golf, track, tennis, swimming, and a cross country run.

*A*MERICAN industry will grow in direct proportion to the quality of our citizenry.

We look to our institutions of higher learning in Louisiana to turn out graduates so trained that they can and will build the future prosperity and greatness of our state, and we expect an important share of this training to be done in The Tulane University of Louisiana.

TABASCO

The Sauce Supreme

MORNING: With your breakfast eggs. A few drops of TABASCO make a good egg better.

NOON: Try TABASCO on your mashed potatoes—you'll be surprised at the new appetizing flavor.

NIGHT: To stimulate a lagging appetite, a drop or two of TABASCO on buttered crackers or thin toast squares is more zestful than a cocktail.
